PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

OVERVIEW FOR THE PROSECUTION OF CASES AT THE FUGITIVE SAFE SURRENDER PROGRAM

SEE ATTACHED SCHEDULE FOR PROGRAM LOCATIONS, DATES AND TIMES

Program Summary

This highly informative program will address matters relating to the prosecution of cases at the Fugitive Safe Surrender Program. The Fugitive Safe Surrender (“FSS”) Program is a federally-funded initiative under the aegis of the United States Marshall Service, which involves converting houses of worship into courthouses for specified periods to allow certain non-violent felons to surrender in exchange for more favorable dispositions of their cases than they would otherwise receive through traditional court proceedings. This program will focus on the program itself, proceedings initiated through the program, and how to secure the disposition of these matters within the parameters of the program.

Who Should Attend?

Assistant prosecutors, Municipal Prosecutors, criminal and municipal public defenders, and others who are invited to participate.

Who Is the Faculty?

Philip S. Aronow is a Supervising Deputy Attorney General assigned as Chief of the Training Bureau with the New Jersey Division of Criminal Justice. Phil started with the Division as a DAG with the Organized Crime and Racketeering Bureau as part of the newly formed New Jersey Motor Vehicle Commission Initiative, and later became the Chief of that Unit. Phil authored the training materials for that initiative and continues to teach on behalf of the Division in the field of Document Fraud and Identity Theft. He will be responsible for statewide training in anticipation of the upcoming Operation Facial Scrub 2012 (FS-12) Initiative. DAG Aronow is a Police Training Commission Certified Instructor and has taught as an Instructor and Guest Lecturer for various law schools as well as for military and law enforcement personnel throughout the state. He is a Faculty Member and Coordinator for the Division for the Top Gun Training Program, the Undercover Narcotics Investigative Training (UNIT School), and the Supervisors Training (DELTA School). Phil is the Coordinator and Project Director on behalf of the Attorney Generals Office for the series of Fugitive Safe Surrender Programs held across the state of New Jersey over the past four years and planned for Atlantic City in April, 2012. Phil is charged with oversight responsibilities for law enforcement training statewide, which includes the Division of Criminal Justice Academy and the New Jersey Police Training Commission. SDAG Aronow is the Coordinator for the statewide implementation of Conducted Energy Devices and Less Lethal Ammunition. Phil also serves as Liaison to the New Jersey State Parole Board and is the Coordinator for the statewide SWEEP (Summer Warrant Effective Enforcement Program) / Shock Wave Initiatives.
