Program Summary

This presentation will provide an overview of prisoner civil rights litigation, with an emphasis on federal practice. A general overview of Section 1983 practice will be supplemented with the nuances and benefits of the PLRA. The particular challenges of handling cases with incarcerated plaintiffs will also be discussed.

Who Should Attend?

This course is open to all government attorneys, space allowing.

Who Is the Faculty?

DAG Dianne Moratti is the Section Chief of the Corrections and State Police Section in the Division of Law. DAG Moratti is a graduate of Rutgers Law School - Camden. Following a federal clerkship with the Hon. Jerome B. Simandle, U.S.D.J., she worked in private practice for several years before joining the Division of Law in the former FedCor section. DAG Moratti was promoted to Section Chief in 1999. She represents the State Police and the Department of Corrections in a variety of federal claims and provides them with agency advice.

DAG Joseph M. Micheletti is an Assistant Section Chief in the Litigation Practice Group, where he manages a group of trial attorneys. DAG Micheletti has over twenty-two years of public service and a wealth of experience in all aspects of litigation. During his time with the Attorney General’s Office, Joe has served in various staff and supervisory positions. He currently handles the defense of complex civil rights litigations brought against law enforcement agencies and their employees. DAG Micheletti previously served as a trial attorney in the Employment Litigation Section, where he provided representation to State agencies and employees in complex employment matters. He also served in the Tort Litigation Section; where he litigated a high volume of personal injury cases. DAG Micheletti has tried multiple matters before the New Jersey Superior and United States District Courts and has also represented State agencies in front of administrative bodies including the Division of Civil Rights and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Additionally, DAG Micheletti briefed and argued multiple appeals before the New Jersey Superior Court, Appellate Division and the United States Third Circuit Court of Appeals. DAG Micheletti serves as a faculty member for New Jersey Attorney General’s Advocacy Institute and the National Attorneys General Training and Research Institute. He teaches courses in trial advocacy, depositions, and Section 183 law.

How Do I Register?

State Employees

Most State employees are able to register for this course by going to http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2 and creating an AGAI Course Registration account. To do so, your computer must be attached to the government's Garden State Network. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2 to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.

Non-State Employees or State Employees not Connected to the Garden State Network

If you are not a State employee, or are otherwise unable to access the AGAI Course Registration System through the Garden State Network, kindly email the Advocacy Institute at: njagai@njpa.gov for an authorization code to allow you access to the AGAI Course Registration System through the My New Jersey portal. Setting up your account through the portal is a two-step process, the details of which are set forth in the next two paragraphs.

Once you receive the portal authorization code you will be prompted to go to the My New Jersey portal at http://www.state.nj.us/ and create a portal account. Once your portal account is created you are prompted to enter your authorization code. This is Step 1 of the process, which you need only do once.

If you have already been issued an authorization code in the past you do not need to request another one. You can log into your account on the Garden State Network at http://www.state.nj.us and under the heading NJ L&PS Applications you will see the Attorney General’s Advocacy Institute’s Registration System. Click on that and log into your account on our system.

Upon setting up your portal account, you need to set up your AGAI Course Registration System account. This is Step 2. To do so, log on to the My New Jersey Portal http://www.state.nj.us/. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a new user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2 to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.
