How Do I Register?

State Employees

Most State employees are able to register for this course by going to http://reg.dej.lps.state.nj.us/login.aspx?portalid=2 and creating an AGAI Course Registration account. To do so, your computer must be attached to the government's Garden State Network. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at http://reg.dej.lps.state.nj.us/login.aspx?portalid=2 to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.

Non-State Employees or State Employees not Connected to the Garden State Network

If you are not a State employee, or are otherwise unable to access the AGAI Course Registration System through the Garden State Network, kindly email the Advocacy Institute at: AdvocacyInstitute@lps.state.nj.us for an authorization code to allow you access to the AGAI Course Registration System through the My New Jersey portal. Setting up your account through the portal is a two-step process, the details of which are set forth in the next two paragraphs.

Once you receive the portal authorization code you will be prompted to go to the My New Jersey portal at http://www.state.nj.us/ and create a portal account. Once your portal account is created you are prompted to enter your authorization code. This is Step 1 of the process, which you need only do once.

If you have already been issued an authorization code in the past you do not need to request another one. You can log into your account on the Garden State Network at http://www.state.nj.us and under the heading NJ L&PS Applications you will see the Attorney General’s Advocacy Institute’s Registration System. Click on that and log into your account on our system.

Upon setting up your portal account, you need to set up your AGAI Course Registration System account. This is Step 2. To do so, log on to the My New Jersey Portal http://www.state.nj.us/. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a new user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at http://reg.dej.lps.state.nj.us/login.aspx?portalid=2 to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.
CONDUCTING CORRUPTION INVESTIGATIONS

This presentation focuses on conducting investigations in official corruption cases, presenting an overview of the investigative strategy and methods used in prosecuting such cases. This presentation discusses the most common types of corruption investigations, the governing law applicable in such investigations, sources of information that can be utilized, the difficulties associated with investigating and prosecuting corruption cases, and strategies for overcoming those difficulties. (9:30 a.m. to 10:45 a.m.)

DAG Anthony A. Picione is with the Division of Criminal Justice and the Chief in the Division's Corruption Bureau. Mr. Picione’s practice concentrates largely on white collar crime, particularly offenses involving public officials and public funds. Mr. Picione received his J.D. cum laude from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1995 and received his B.A. magna cum laude from Drew University in 1992. Prior to joining the Division in 1999, Mr. Picione was associated with the law firm of Pitney, Hardin, Kipp & Szuch.

CASE STUDY ON ANNA TALIAFERRO

This presentation reviews the investigation and prosecution of Anna Taliaferro, a former Paterson school district employee convicted after a lengthy trial of official misconduct, theft, and other related charges. She was the district-wide coordinator of the Paterson Resource Center, and her duties included organizing and managing programs for district parents. She had the school district hire her own company to organize conferences for these parents, without disclosing her financial interest in the company. She then unlawfully ran her business on district time using the Paterson School District employees and resources. She also overbilled the district by more than $190,000. (1:00 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.)

Veronica Allende is a Deputy Attorney General with the New Jersey Division of Criminal Justice. DAG Allende joined the Division in May 2007 and currently serves as a Deputy Attorney General in the Official Corruption Bureau. In that unit, she supervises the investigation of and has successfully prosecuted numerous defendants charged with official misconduct, theft by deception, and various kinds of financial fraud. Prior to her time in the Corruption Bureau, DAG Allende served as a Deputy Attorney General in the Gangs & Organized Crime Bureau for 5 years, where she supervised the investigation of and successfully prosecuted numerous defendants involved in narcotics distribution, gun trafficking and possession, and money laundering. While in that unit, DAG Allende served as an Acting Essex County Assistant Prosecutor, assigned to a trial team and the Multi-Jurisdictional Carjacking Task Force. In addition to her service as a Deputy Attorney General, DAG Allende has been a Legal Research & Writing Adjunct Professor at Seton Hall University School of Law for the past 5 years. Prior to joining the Division, Ms. Allende practiced land use and commercial real estate law with the law firm of Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer in Woodbridge, New Jersey, from 2006 to 2007. Ms. Allende holds a B.A. in Political Science with a minor in Philosophy from Mount St. Mary’s University in Emmitsburg, Maryland, and a Juris Doctor from Seton Hall University School of Law. She is admitted to the bar in New Jersey.
LEGAL ETHICS & SOCIAL MEDIA: DON’T LOL…THIS IS SERIOUS STUFF

This presentation will explore the ethical issues that the social media explosion is causing in the courtroom, from jurors obtaining information on their smart phones to lawyers "friending" judges that they appear before in court. This training uses real world examples to explain the social media impact and to make attorneys aware of RPC issues created by this technology. If you have seen this course before, the material has been updated to reflect changing case law.

(2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.)

Deputy First Assistant Prosecutor Lori Linskey joined the Monmouth County Prosecutor’s Office in January 2013. In this capacity, she handles administrative and management matters for the Prosecutor’s Office. Prior to assuming her current position, she served the New Jersey Division of Criminal Justice as Senior Counsel for more than 15 years and was the Acting Chief of the Prosecutors Supervision & Coordination Bureau prior to her departure. DFAP Linskey served as the Ethics Liaison Officer for DCJ for more than 10 years and provided legal advice to the County Prosecutors on a wide array of issues including: conflicts and supersession matters, management issues and regulatory firearms matters. DFAP Linskey received an Attorney General Award for her work revising New Jersey’s Eyewitness Identification Guidelines.
