

The Advocacy Institute Is Pleased to Announce Another Attorney General's Series Program

PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

THE VIRTUES OF A CAREER IN PUBLIC SERVICE AND GENERAL PRINCIPLES FOR TRIAL ATTORNEYS

October 1, 2012

5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Richard J. Hughes Justice Complex

6th Floor Point Meeting Area – Attorney General's Library

25 Market Street

Trenton, New Jersey

Program Summary

This highly informative presentation will focus upon a core set of principles to which trial attorneys can adhere in litigating cases before the courts of this State. These common sense principles are intended to enhance the participants' ability to effectively represent their clients while meeting their professional obligations to their adversaries and the courts. This presentation also will address the unique role of government attorneys in the legal system. Those who attend will walk away with a core set of principles to guide them in practicing before the courts of this State.

Who Should Attend?

This program is open to attorneys within the Department of Law and Public Safety and members of the Office of the Public Defender only. Please do not attempt to register for this program if you are not an attorney within these offices.

Who Is the Faculty?

The Honorable Robert A. Kirsch, J.S.C., was sworn in during as a Judge of the Superior Court in January 2010, and sits in Union County. After taking the oath, Judge Kirsch was first assigned to preside over charges of child abuse and neglect, including litigation seeking the termination of parental rights. At present, Judge Kirsch presides over matters of juvenile delinquency, including cases of juveniles charged with murder, sexual assault, carjacking, armed robbery, and the like.

Before being appointed to the bench, Judge Kirsch served for more than twelve years as an Assistant United States Attorney in Newark. In that capacity, Judge Kirsch served for more than eight years as a federal prosecutor specializing in sophisticated white-collar fraud, handling a number of nationally high-profile criminal prosecutions. As a prosecutor, Judge Kirsch tried numerous cases involving complex international and domestic investment and corporate financial fraud schemes, as well as garden-variety prosecutions for drug trafficking, weapons offenses, and theft. In addition, Judge Kirsch also served for four years in the Civil Division of the U.S. Attorney's Office where he handled civil litigation matters involving claims of employment discrimination, medical malpractice, constitutional torts, and personal injury.

Prior to his tenure in the U.S. Attorney's Office, Judge Kirsch served for four years in the Attorney General's Honors Program at the U.S. Department of Justice, as a Trial Attorney in the Civil Division, handling complex civil litigation matters on behalf of the United States. Over his career in public service, he has received numerous awards and commendations for outstanding performance.

After graduating from Fordham University School of law, with honors, he clerked for the Honorable William J. Zloch, a United States District Court Judge in Florida. He received his undergraduate degree in Political Science from Emory University, where he graduated magna cum laude.
