BASIC ESTATE PLANNING

2:30 p.m.-3:45 p.m.

Summary: Estate planning involves not only the determination of who will inherit your property after your death, but who will take care of you and your property before your death if you should become incapacitated. Estate planning also should include actions intended to minimize taxes and address issues related to the care and custody of minor children and individuals with special needs. This insightful presentation will focus on the foundational documents of basic estate planning and what factors should be considered when drafting them.

Presenter: Fiona Van Dyck, Esq. is in private practice in Princeton, New Jersey as the founding partner of the firm Van Dyck Law, LLC where she concentrates her practice in estate planning, including wills, trusts and asset protection planning, estate administration, elder law and guardianships. Admitted to practice in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New York, Ms. Van Dyck is a member of the New Jersey State Bar Association, the Mercer County Estate Planning Council, Wealth Counsel, Elder Counsel and the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA). Ms. Van Dyck lectures on estate planning, asset protection and elder law issues to various private and public groups and has written on various estate planning issues. Ms. Van Dyck received her undergraduate degree from Rutgers University in New Brunswick, New Jersey and her law degree from Rutgers School of Law – Camden. She has also received an LL.M. from the University of London with a concentration in business law.

REAL ESTATE CLOSINGS
4:00 p.m.-5:15 p.m.

Summary: Closings on commercial and residential properties occur every day. This engaging presentation will provide a basic overview of the real estate closing process in New Jersey. Among the topics addressed will be the attorney’s role in preparing for and participating in a closing, the common documents needed to ensure a closing can occur, the various adjustments to which parties are entitled, and the proper recordation of the closing documents. Participants will leave this presentation with a clearer understanding of a common, yet sometimes complicated, process.

Presenter: Director Michael I. Halfacre was appointed as Director of the Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control by Governor Chris Christie. He began his work as Acting Director on February 6, 2012 and, after New Jersey Senate confirmation, was sworn in as Director on March 30, 2012. Prior to his appointment as Director, Mr. Halfacre was in private practice, including having his own firm where he specialized in transactions; including sales and refinance of real estate and transfers of ABC licenses. During this time, Director Halfacre also served as a municipal prosecutor in Little Silver and Rumson, where he argued for convictions for drunk drivers and adults who provided alcohol to underage drinkers. While in the private sector, Director Halfacre served as a trustee of the New Jersey State Bar Foundation, Ocean-Monmouth Legal Services and the Monmouth Bar Association. A lifelong resident of Fair Haven, Director Halfacre served in various elected and appointed positions in the municipality, including serving as Mayor from 2007 through his appointment as Director of the Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control. Director Halfacre earned his undergraduate degree in Political Science from Florida State University, where he was co-captain of the varsity swimming team. He later earned his law degree from the University of Dayton. He was admitted to the New Jersey Bar in 1991.
