Program Summary

This program will provide an overview of the basics of a DWI prosecution and will include instruction, by a certified breath test coordinator, on how the Alcotest 7110 MK-IIIIC works, a demonstration of a re-calibration of an Alcotest instrument, and a demonstration of how a breath test is conducted. This program will also review current hot topics being raised by defense attorneys in DWI prosecutions, including repair records, discovery issues, RFI/EMI Interference, the central database, data deletion, twenty-minute observation period, Standard Statement & the Ignition Interlock device, and the 2-minute lockout.

Who Should Attend?

This program is open to municipal and county assistant prosecutors as well as deputy and assistant attorneys general within the Division of Criminal Justice only.

Who Is the Faculty?

Trooper Joseph Steven Dellanoce is currently with the Background and Compliance Bureau, Special Investigation Section, Alcohol/Drug Testing Unit. He has been with the State Police since November, 2001 and has worked in several units of the State Police since his enlistment. Prior to his work with the State Police, Trooper Dellanoce worked as a Police Officer with the Galloway Twp. and Hamilton Twp. Police Departments. He was also a Field Training Officer with the Hamilton Twp. Police Department. He received a B.A. in both Criminal Justice and Political Science from Rutgers University, New Brunswick. He has attended many technical/professional trainings.

Robyn Mitchell is a Deputy Attorney General with the New Jersey Division of Criminal Justice. DAG Mitchell joined the Division in January 2000, where she worked in the Legislation Section until 2003, and in the Appellate Bureau between 2003 and 2011. Assigned to the Prosecutors Supervision & Coordination Bureau since March 2011, DAG Mitchell handles matters involving DWI and Alcotest-related issues, and provides legal guidance and support to assistant and municipal prosecutors in the prosecution of DWI cases. She started her career in 1991 as a Staff Attorney in the Criminal Defense Division of The Legal Aid Society in Manhattan. She received her B.A. degree in 1988 from Rutgers College and her J.D. in 1991 from The University of Maryland School of Law in Baltimore, Maryland.
