PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

LEGAL ISSUES IN INVESTIGATING AND PROSECUTING CHILD PORNOGRAPHY CASES

July 24, 2013
2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.
New Jersey State House
Room 301-10
Authorities Conference Room
125 West State Street
Trenton, New Jersey

Program Summary

The personal computer, the Internet, high-speed Internet access, and digital cameras and camcorders have given pedophiles the ability to create, distribute and collect child pornography files easier, faster and with more perceived anonymity than ever before. This presentation will shine a light on child pornography and the multi-billion dollar child pornography industry that profits on the abuse of children. This presentation will discuss how technology has forever changed the child pornography industry and how that industry operates. This presentation will also explore possible ways to investigate and apprehend those who create child pornography as well as those who enable the industry by buying, distributing and viewing child pornography. Further this presentation will discuss New Jersey's new child pornography statute and how it will enable prosecutors to more effectively prosecute child pornography defendants.

Who Should Attend?

This program is intended for those invited to participate in the State House Series programs. Please do not attempt to register for this program if you have not already been selected to participate.

Who Is the Faculty?

DAG Kenneth R. Sharpe, currently supervises the DCJ Computer Analysis and Technology Unit located in Hamilton at the OAG Technical Complex. DAG Sharpe graduated from Washington University, School of Law in St. Louis. DAG Sharpe prosecuted indictable cases for 12 years. During that time, he returned to college at Rutgers part-time to pursue his passion in technology and computers. He graduated with a BA in computer science and has been specializing in computer crime investigations and prosecutions for the past 11 years. DAG Sharpe has supervised hundreds of child pornography investigations including manufacturing, distribution and possession cases. DAG Sharpe has won formal recognition for his exceptional work from FBI Director Robert Mueller, New Jersey State Police Superintendent Rick Fuentes, and New Jersey Attorney General Paula T. Dow. DAG Sharpe has delivered training presentations for prosecutors and investigators in New Jersey on many topics related to child exploitation and hacking investigations and prosecutions. DAG Sharpe is a subject matter expert in the use of legal process to obtain electronic evidence.

How Do I Register?

State Employees

Most State employees are able to register for this course by going to <http://reg.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/login.aspx?portalid=2> and creating an AGAI Course Registration account. To do so, your computer must be attached to the government's Garden State Network. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at <http://reg.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/login.aspx?portalid=2> to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.

Non-State Employees or State Employees not Connected to the Garden State Network

If you are not a State employee, or are otherwise unable to access the AGAI Course Registration System through the Garden State Network, kindly email the Advocacy Institute at: AdvocacyInstitute@lps.state.nj.us for an authorization code to allow you access to the AGAI Course Registration System through the My New Jersey portal. Setting up your account through the portal is a two-step process, the details of which are set forth in the next two paragraphs.

Once you receive the portal authorization code you will be prompted to go to the My New Jersey portal at <http://www.state.nj.us/> and create a portal account. This is Step 1 of the process, which you need only do once.

Upon setting up your portal account, you need to set up your AGAI Course Registration System account. This is Step 2. To do so, log on to the My New Jersey Portal <http://www.state.nj.us/>.

Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a new user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at <http://reg.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/login.aspx?portalid=2> to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.
