PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

ASSET FORFEITURE: TAKING THE PROFIT OUT OF CRIME

March 5, 2014

4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Richard J. Hughes Justice Complex

6th Floor Point Meeting Area – Attorney General's Library

25 Market Street

Trenton, New Jersey

Program Summary

This presentation will discuss the goals, investigation, and prosecution of forfeitures. Participants will be instructed on identifying cases where there may be property subject to forfeiture. This presentation will also discuss how to build probable cause, and to seize property. Finally, there will be an overview on the litigation of forfeiture from the filing of a complaint to obtaining a judgment.

Who Should Attend?

This program is intended for newly hired deputy attorneys general within the Division of Criminal Justice. The Division of Criminal Justice has selected those attorneys who must attend this program. Others within the Department of Law and Public Safety are welcome to attend space permitting. Please do not attempt to register for this program if you are not within the Department of Law and Public Safety.

Who Is the Faculty?

DAG Nina D. Bonner is currently with the Division of Criminal Justice's Office of the Insurance Fraud Prosecutor. Within this assignment her responsibilities include; investigating, analyzing and seizing properties with a nexus to criminal activity, overseeing the distribution of funds earmarked for restitution and forfeiture and screening referred cases. Prior to working with OIFP, she worked in the Office of State Police Affairs, Prosecutors' Supervision and Coordination Bureau, Appellate Bureau and Civil Remedies and Forfeiture Bureau. She received a B.A. in Psychology from Swarthmore College and J.D. from Seton Hall University School of Law.

DAG Derek Miller is currently with the Division of Criminal Justice's Financial Crimes Bureau wherein he prosecutes criminal and civil cases, with a focus on asset forfeiture and has handled multi-million dollar seizures and forfeitures. Prior to working as a DAG with the Financial Crimes Bureau, Derek was a Volunteer Attorney in the Division of Criminal Justice from 2010 to 2011. He received his B.A. from Rutgers University and his J.D. from Rutgers School of Law (Camden).

How Do I Register?

State Employees

Most State employees are able to register for this course by going to <http://reg.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/login.aspx?portalid=2> and creating an AGAI Course Registration account. To do so, your computer must be attached to the government's Garden State Network. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at <http://reg.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/login.aspx?portalid=2> to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.

Non-State Employees or State Employees not Connected to the Garden State Network

If you are not a State employee, or are otherwise unable to access the AGAI Course Registration System through the Garden State Network, kindly email the Advocacy Institute at: AdvocacyInstitute@lps.state.nj.us for an authorization code to allow you access to the AGAI Course Registration System through the My New Jersey portal. Setting up your account through the portal is a two-step process, the details of which are set forth in the next two paragraphs.

Once you receive the portal authorization code you will be prompted to go to the My New Jersey portal at <http://www.state.nj.us/> and create a portal account. Once your portal account is created you are prompted to enter your authorization code. This is Step 1 of the process, which you need only do once.

If you have already been issued an authorization code in the past you do not need to request another one. You can log into your account on the Garden State Network at <http://www.state.nj.us> and under the heading NJ L&PS Applications you will see the Attorney General's Advocacy Institute's Registration System. Click on that and log into your account on our system.

Upon setting up your portal account, you need to set up your AGAI Course Registration System account. This is Step 2. To do so, log on to the My New Jersey Portal <http://www.state.nj.us/>. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a new user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at <http://reg.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/login.aspx?portalid=2> to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.
