PLEASE READ: NOTICE REGARDING COURSE MATERIALS

All materials for New Jersey Attorney General's Advocacy Institute continuing legal education courses are now available electronically through the Advocacy Institute website: www.njadvocacyinstitute.com. Materials will be posted to the website approximately one week before the course date.

The institute will no longer provide paper copies of course materials. This policy is effective immediately and is within the guidelines of the New Jersey Board of Continuing Legal Education and the Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board. Please follow the procedure below to obtain course materials:

- Click on the Course Information tab.
- Select Course Materials from the drop-down menu.
- Click on the course that you are registered for. Courses are listed alphabetically by title.
- Most courses will have two files; a file containing class materials that you should bring to the session and a file with reference materials such as statutes, regulations and cases.
- Print the documents in the class materials file and bring them with you to the session.
- You have the option of printing the documents in the reference materials file or downloading them to a computer or mobile device.

Program Summary

This course will cover recent caselaw and trends on both the criminal and civil fronts. The first half will be dedicated to criminal issues, exploring both Federal and State caselaw and the differences between the two. The second half will be dedicated to civil issues, including both attorney general-led enforcement actions and private actions.

Who Should Attend?

This presentation is open to all government attorneys, space allowing.

Who Is the Faculty?

Lee Vartan is a litigation attorney in Holland & Knight's New York office. He practices in the area of white collar defense and investigations and handles all aspects of complex civil litigation in federal and state courts.

Prior to joining Holland & Knight, Mr. Vartan had a distinguished, seven-year career in federal and state government service. From 2007 through 2011, he served as a federal prosecutor in New Jersey where he prosecuted various white collar and cyber offenses, including money laundering crimes, securities fraud, racketeering, computer intrusion and mail, wire and bank fraud. He successfully tried seven federal jury trials.

In 2011, Mr. Vartan joined the administration of New Jersey Governor Chris Christie and served in the governor's counsel's office, advising the governor and senior administration officials on policy and legislation. He was then elevated to chief of staff to the New Jersey Attorney General, and later served as the executive assistant attorney general—the state's second highest-ranking prosecutor at the time. As the executive assistant attorney general, Mr. Vartan helped to manage the day-to-day activities of the 8,100-person Department of Law and Public Safety, where his responsibilities included supervision of the New Jersey State Police, Division of Criminal Justice, Division of Gaming Enforcement and Division of Consumer Affairs.

In addition to his legal practice, Mr. Vartan is a frequent commentator in the media, providing regular perspective and comment to The Wall Street Journal, Bloomberg, the New York Daily News, The (Newark) Star-Ledger, The Philadelphia Inquirer and other publications on significant federal and state criminal cases. Mr. Vartan is also a regular speaker before companies, conferences and the New Jersey State Bar Association, where he lectures on multi-state, attorney general-led enforcement actions, cybersecurity, data privacy and healthcare fraud, among other topics. In addition, he served for several years as an adjunct professor at Seton Hall Law School in Newark, N.J., where he taught a course on the investigation and prosecution of federal cybercrimes.

How Do I Register?

State Employees

Most State employees are able to register for this course by going to <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> and creating an AGAI Course Registration account. To do so, your computer must be attached to the government's Garden State Network. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.

Non-State Employees or State Employees not Connected to the Garden State Network

If you are not a State employee, or are otherwise unable to access the AGAI Course Registration System through the Garden State Network, kindly email the Advocacy Institute at: AdvocacyInstitute@lps.state.nj.us for an authorization code to allow you access to the AGAI Course Registration System through the My New Jersey portal. Setting up your account through the portal is a two-step process, the details of which are set forth in the next two paragraphs.

Once you receive the portal authorization code you will be prompted to go to the My New Jersey portal at <http://www.state.nj.us/> and create a portal account. Once your portal account is created you are prompted to enter your authorization code. This is Step 1 of the process, which you need only do once.

If you have already been issued an authorization code in the past you do not need to request another one. You can log into your account on the Garden State Network at <http://www.state.nj.us> and under the heading NJ L&PS Applications you will see the Attorney General's Advocacy Institute's Registration System. Click on that and log into your account on our system.

Upon setting up your portal account, you need to set up your AGAI Course Registration System account. This is Step 2. To do so, log on to the My New Jersey Portal <http://www.state.nj.us/>. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a new user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.
