PLEASE READ: NOTICE REGARDING COURSE MATERIALS

All materials for New Jersey Attorney General's Advocacy Institute continuing legal education courses are now available electronically through the Advocacy Institute website: www.njadvocacyinstitute.com. Materials will be posted to the website approximately one week before the course date.

The institute will no longer provide paper copies of course materials. This policy is effective immediately and is within the guidelines of the New Jersey Board of Continuing Legal Education and the Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board. Please follow the procedure below to obtain course materials:

- Click on the Course Information tab.
- Select Course Materials from the drop-down menu.
- Click on the course that you are registered for. Courses are listed alphabetically by title.
- Most courses will have two files; a file containing class materials that you should bring to the session and a file with reference materials such as statutes, regulations and cases.
- Print the documents in the class materials file and bring them with you to the session.
- You have the option of printing the documents in the reference materials file or downloading them to a computer or mobile device.

Program Summary

This course is required by Section 7.9 of Attorney General Directive 2016-6. It will provide an analysis of the legal issues, best prosecutorial practices and procedures, and advocacy skills relating to preventive detention and revocation of release under Criminal Justice Reform Pursuant to P.L. 2014, c. 31.

Who Should Attend?

This training is designed for and limited to the Director and Deputy Directors of the NJ Division of Criminal Justice, all County Prosecutors, First Assistant Prosecutors, and all assistant prosecutors, assistant attorneys general, and deputy attorneys general designated under Section 7.8 to approve decisions to overcome presumptions established by Section 7 and 8 of the Attorney General Directive. Please do not attempt to register for this course if you are not a member of one of these groups.

Who Is the Faculty?

DAG Daniel I. Bornstein has served as Chief of the Appellate Bureau of the Division of Criminal Justice since September 2014. He joined the Division of Criminal Justice as a Deputy Attorney General in 1995, and for many years handled criminal trials and appeals while being simultaneously assigned to the Appellate Bureau and the Gangs & Organized Crime Bureau. While in the Gangs & Organized Crime Bureau, DAG Bornstein successfully tried cases involving homicide, racketeering, and weapons and narcotics offenses, and several multi-defendant wiretap cases. While in the Appellate Bureau, DAG Bornstein regularly handles appeals before the New Jersey Supreme Court and Appellate Division. He has also handled habeas corpus petitions before the United States District Court and Third Circuit Court of Appeals. He currently manages a staff of 25 in the Appellate Bureau, and regularly provides trial assistance to assistant prosecutors and trial DASG across the State. He also has made numerous presentations for the NJ Attorney General's Office's Advocacy Institute. DAG Bornstein graduated magna cum laude from Colgate University and received his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School. He clerked for the Honorable Martin J. Kole, J.A.D., t/a, and the Honorable Theodore A. Winard, J.S.C.

Thomas J. Chirichella is the First Assistant Prosecutor in the Somerset County Prosecutor's Office. He is a U.S. Marine Corps veteran and graduate of the Seton Hall University School of Law. Mr. Chirichella has been a prosecutor since 1982. He spent the first 10 ½ years of his career with the New Jersey Division of Criminal Justice, Organized Crime Bureau and has been with the Somerset County Prosecutor's Office since 1992. He began his career in the prosecutor's office as an Assistant Prosecutor assigned to adult criminal prosecutions. He has taught at the Somerset County Police Academy and for the Attorney General's Advocacy Institute as well as at the National Advocacy Center.

Brian D. Gillet is the Middlesex County Deputy First Assistant Prosecutor. He started with the Middlesex County Prosecutors Office in January 2005 and has been the Deputy First Assistant Prosecutor since December 2013. He has a B.A. from Northwestern University and graduated from Seton Hall University School Law in 1982. Upon graduation from law school, he served as principal law clerk to the Hon. V. William DiBuono, A.J.S.C. in Union County. In 1983, Gillet was hired by John H. Stamler as an Assistant Union County Prosecutor, where he served until 1993. He was assigned to the Appellate Unit, trial teams, and the Economic Crimes unit and served as the Supervisor of the Organized Crimes Unit. For four years, he was cross-designated as a Special Assistant U.S. Attorney, where he investigated and tried organized crime/RICO cases. After 1 1/2 years in private practice, Gillet joined the Office of Attorney Ethics, where he investigated and prosecuted violations of the Rules of Professional Conduct. Gillet then joined the Middlesex County Prosecutor's Office in 2005 where he has served as the Section Chief of the Special Prosecutions Unit and the Appellate/PCR Unit. He currently coordinates the in-house Continuing Legal Education and training programs and serves as the Ethics Officer. He has argued numerous cases before the Appellate Division and the New Jersey Supreme Court. A Certified Criminal Trial Attorney, Gillet has lectured on attorney ethics, the criminal code, appellate issues, and internal affairs. He is a member of the bars of New Jersey, the District of New Jersey and the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit.

Marc C. LeMieux is the First Assistant Prosecutor in the Monmouth County Prosecutor's Office. After graduating from Widener University School of Law and Trenton State College, he was hired by the Monmouth County Prosecutor's Office as a law clerk in 1996. He was then assigned to the Family and Trial Team Units, where he successfully prosecuted over 100 jury trials and 60 bench trials. In 2005, he was assigned to the Major Crimes Bureau, and rose to Director of the Bureau in 2007, a position he held for the next seven years. During his time with Major Crimes, LeMieux prosecuted several high profile homicide cases, including serial killer Robert Zarinsky. In 2012, LeMieux was promoted to Director of the office's Investigations Division, overseeing the individual bureaus of Major Crimes, Forensics, Narcotics and Organized Criminal Enterprises, Special Victim's, Megan's Law, Financial Crimes and Public Corruption, and Computer Crimes. LeMieux was promoted to his current position in 2014. He has served his entire 20 year career with the Monmouth County Prosecutor's Office.

Gregory R. Mueller is the First Assistant Prosecutor in the Sussex County Prosecutor's Office. He is a graduate of Duquesne University School of Law and has been practicing law for 21 years. He served as a law clerk, an Assistant Prosecutor in Morris County and an Assistant Prosecutor in Sussex County. He has served as the First Assistant Prosecutor in Sussex County for the past eight years. His primary assignments have been in the major crimes, appellate and internal affairs units.

How Do I Register?

State Employees

Most State employees are able to register for this course by going to <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> and creating an AGAI Course Registration account. To do so, your computer must be attached to the government's Garden State Network. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.

Non-State Employees or State Employees not Connected to the Garden State Network

If you are not a State employee, or are otherwise unable to access the AGAI Course Registration System through the Garden State Network, kindly email the Advocacy Institute at: AdvocacyInstitute@lps.state.nj.us for an authorization code to allow you access to the AGAI Course Registration System through the My New Jersey portal. Setting up your account through the portal is a two-step process, the details of which are set forth in the next two paragraphs.

Once you receive the portal authorization code you will be prompted to go to the My New Jersey portal at <http://www.state.nj.us/> and create a portal account. Once your portal account is created you are prompted to enter your authorization code. This is Step 1 of the process, which you need only do once.

If you have already been issued an authorization code in the past you do not need to request another one. You can log into your account on the Garden State Network at <http://www.state.nj.us> and under the heading NJ L&PS Applications you will see the Attorney General's Advocacy Institute's Registration System. Click on that and log into your account on our system.

Upon setting up your portal account, you need to set up your AGAI Course Registration System account. This is Step 2. To do so, log on to the My New Jersey Portal <http://www.state.nj.us/>. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a new user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.
