Program Summary

This program will focus on diversity and its impact on the workplace. Topics include the concept of diversity as distinguished from that of inclusion and why both are important, variations in how people perceive differences, and the social psychology concept of “in-group bias.” Hypothetical vignettes will be utilized to spur discussion on situations that may arise in the workplace, explore our differences in interpreting those experiences, and suggest techniques that foster a more inclusive culture. The session will also address unspoken workplace rules and the challenges they present in a multicultural workforce, plus communication as a strategy to overcome stereotyping and bias.

Who Should Attend?

Registration is limited to Department of Law and Public Safety attorneys who have received an email notice from the Department's Diversity and Inclusion Team. Those attorneys should follow the registration instructions contained in the invitation email to reserve a seat for this session. Please do not use the AGAI registration system for this program.

Who Is the Faculty?

DAG Jana R. DiCosmo is a deputy in the Employment Counseling and Labor section of the Division of Law. DiCosmo represents the State and its agencies in employment-related matters, including discrimination complaints filed with the New Jersey Division on Civil Rights and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

Prior to joining the Office of the Attorney General, DAG DiCosmo worked at the Delaware Department of Labor's Office of Anti-Discrimination, investigating over one hundred charges of discrimination filed against Delaware employers. DAG DiCosmo also served as the Department's liaison to the Delaware Employment First Oversight Commission, which worked to improve employment opportunities for disabled Delaware residents. DAG DiCosmo previously worked as an Equal Justice Works AmeriCorps Taishoff fellow at the Delaware Law School's Veterans Law Clinic, representing disabled veterans in disability benefits appeals. DAG DiCosmo interned for the Honorable Harold U. Johnson, J.S.C. while in her final semester of law school and clerked for the Honorable Mary K. White, J.S.C. (ret.) after graduation.

While attending Delaware Law School, DAG DiCosmo served as the Assistant Editor-in-Chief of the Widener Journal of Law, Economics, and Race. After graduation, she coauthored an article published by the Journal, which examined the minority-majority interest-convergence theory in race relations within the context of special education and disability benefits determinations.

DAG John Nicodemo joined the Department of Law and Public Safety's Division of Criminal Justice in 2013. He prosecutes crimes in the Financial, Cyber and Public Corruption Bureaus. DAG Nicodemo has been a member of the Attorney General's Diversity Council since 2016 and played an instrumental role in establishing the Department's Employee Resource Groups. After earning both his Bachelor's Degree and M.B.A. from Temple University, DAG Nicodemo spent several years in the entertainment industry. He subsequently earned his law degree from Touro College Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law School in New York and is licensed in New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania.

How Do I Register?

State Employees

Most State employees are able to register for this course by going to <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> and creating an AGAI Course Registration account. To do so, your computer must be attached to the government's Garden State Network. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.

Non-State Employees or State Employees not Connected to the Garden State Network

If you are not a State employee, or are otherwise unable to access the AGAI Course Registration System through the Garden State Network, kindly email the Advocacy Institute at: njagai@njoag.gov for an authorization code to allow you access to the AGAI Course Registration System through the My New Jersey portal. Setting up your account through the portal is a two-step process, the details of which are set forth in the next two paragraphs.

Once you receive the portal authorization code you will be prompted to go to the My New Jersey portal at <http://www.state.nj.us/> and create a portal account. Once your portal account is created you are prompted to enter your authorization code. This is Step 1 of the process, which you need only do once.

If you have already been issued an authorization code in the past you do not need to request another one. You can log into your account on the Garden State Network at <http://www.state.nj.us> and under the heading NJ L&PS Applications you will see the Attorney General's Advocacy Institute's Registration System. Click on that and log into your account on our system.

Upon setting up your portal account, you need to set up your AGAI Course Registration System account. This is Step 2. To do so, log on to the My New Jersey Portal <http://www.state.nj.us/>. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a new user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.
