Program Summary

This program will focus on diversity and its impact on the workplace. Topics include the concept of diversity as distinguished from that of inclusion and why both are important, variations in how people perceive differences, and the social psychology concept of “in-group bias.” Hypothetical vignettes will be utilized to spur discussion on situations that may arise in the workplace, explore our differences in interpreting those experiences, and suggest techniques that foster a more inclusive culture. The session will also address unspoken workplace rules and the challenges they present in a multicultural workforce, plus communication as a strategy to overcome stereotyping and bias.

Who Should Attend?

Registration is limited to Department of Law and Public Safety attorneys who have received an email Course Registration Notice generated by the Learning Management System. Please follow the email instructions to log into your LMS account and reserve a seat for this session. You will not be able to use the AGAI registration system for this program.
Who Is the Faculty?

AAG Lora Fong is the Chief Diversity Officer of the New Jersey Department of Law and Public Safety, a position she has held since its creation in December 2016. Before joining LPS, she was a partner at Brown, Moskowitz & Kallen and held in-house counsel positions at Diversity Inc., Salesforce.com and Fujitsu Consulting. Earlier in her career, she worked at Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis and Sills, Cummins, Epstein & Gross. She has served on the Board of Trustees of Rutgers University and the New Jersey State Bar Association and as a member of the New Jersey State Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights and the New Jersey Supreme Court Committee on Women in the Courts. She graduated from Rutgers University, Douglass College, and Rutgers University School of Law in Newark.

Stanford W. Senior Jr. works in the Department of Law and Public Safety’s Division of Consumer Affairs’ Office of Consumer Protection Consumer Service Center. He has also worked for the Legalized Games of Chance Commission and in case management tracking. His background in diversity includes serving on the Office of the Attorney General’s Diversity Council, assisting with the establishment of Employee Resource Groups and participating in the Division’s Heritage Month Committee. Stanford earned a Bachelor’s Degree and a Master’s Degree in Leadership from Lee University in Cleveland, TN.
