Program Summary

This one-day program provides "learn-by-doing" training for prospective advocacy skills faculty. Participants will receive instruction on the AGAI's teaching methodology and critique student performances in a simulated mock skills program setting. The faculty, in turn, will then evaluate the participants' teaching techniques.

Who Should Attend?

Attendees for this program have been nominated to participate by their division, program or office leadership. Please do not attempt to register for this program if you have not been invited to attend. Those who complete the program will be eligible to serve as faculty for Attorney General's Advocacy Institute and National Attorneys General Training and Research Institute litigation skills programs.

Who Is the Faculty?

AAG Christine A. Hoffman is a Deputy Director of the Division of Criminal Justice and former Chief of the Division's Corruption Bureau. AAG Hoffman previously served as Deputy Chief of the Division's Major Crimes Bureau and Assistant Prosecutor with the Burlington County Prosecutor's Office. AAG Hoffman is a member of the Attorney General's Advocacy Institute faculty and the National Attorneys General Training and Research Institute faculty.

DAG Joseph M. Micheletti is an Assistant Section Chief in the State Police, Employment Litigation and Corrections Section, where he manages a group of trial attorneys and handles the defense of complex civil rights cases brought against law enforcement agencies and their employees. DAG Micheletti has extensive experience in all aspects of litigation. DAG Micheletti previously served as a trial attorney in the Employment Litigation Section, where he provided representation to State agencies and employees in complex employment matters. He also served in the Tort Litigation Section; where he litigated a high volume of personal injury cases. DAG Micheletti has tried multiple matters before the New Jersey Superior and United States District Courts and has also represented State agencies in front of administrative bodies including the Division of Civil Rights and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. DAG Micheletti briefed and argued multiple appeals before the New Jersey Superior Court, Appellate Division and the United States Third Circuit Court of Appeals. DAG Micheletti serves as a faculty member for New Jersey Attorney General's Advocacy Institute and the National Attorneys General Training and Research Institute.
