AN OVERVIEW OF CRIMINAL PRETRIAL MOTION PRACTICE

May 29, 2019
10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
R.J. Hughes Justice Complex
4th Floor Conference Room A
Trenton, New Jersey

NOTICE REGARDING COURSE MATERIALS

You will receive the course materials approximately forty-eight (48) hours prior to the date of the course. The materials will be contained in an email attachment.

Program Summary

This presentation will provide a general overview of the pre-trial motion practice typically encountered by New Jersey criminal prosecutors in State trial courts. The discussion will cover the various types and purposes of pre-trial motions commonly filed by both the prosecution and defense, from dismissal and severance motions to those concerning various suppression and preclusion issues. It will also address relevant case law and applicable court and evidentiary rules, statutes and practice guides.

Who Should Attend?

This program is designed for prosecutors who have not yet tried a criminal case or who have minimal criminal trial experience. However, it is open to all government attorneys.

Who Is the Faculty?

DAG Peter Lee is the Deputy Chief of the Division of Criminal Justice's Corruption Bureau South Unit. DAG Lee's practice concentrates on white collar crime, particularly offenses involving public officials and public funds. Prior to joining the Corruption Bureau, DAG Lee was assigned to the Office of the Insurance Fraud Prosecutor, where he prosecuted various insurance crimes, including health care claims, disability insurance and property insurance frauds. Before joining the Division of Criminal Justice, DAG Lee was in private practice, concentrating in products liability and environmental litigation. He received his J.D. degree from Cornell Law School in 1993 and a B.A. with honors from the University of Chicago in 1990.

DAG Brian Uzdavinis is assigned to the Division of Criminal Justice's Corruption and Government Fraud Bureau, where he oversees the investigation and prosecution of cases involving official misconduct and crimes against public agencies. He previously worked in the Division's Appellate Bureau, regularly appearing before the New Jersey Supreme Court and Appellate Division. DAG Uzdavinis clerked for New Jersey Supreme Court Justice John E. Wallace, Jr. He is a former journalist who holds a master's degree in criminology from St. Joseph's University and a J.D. from the Rutgers-Camden School of Law.

How Do I Register?

State Employees

Most State employees are able to register for this course by going to <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> and creating an AGAI Course Registration account. To do so, your computer must be attached to the government's Garden State Network. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.

Non-State Employees or State Employees not Connected to the Garden State Network

If you are not a State employee, or are otherwise unable to access the AGAI Course Registration System through the Garden State Network, kindly email the Advocacy Institute at: njagai@njoag.gov for an authorization code to allow you access to the AGAI Course Registration System through the My New Jersey portal. Setting up your account through the portal is a two-step process, the details of which are set forth in the next two paragraphs.

Once you receive the portal authorization code you will be prompted to go to the My New Jersey portal at <http://www.state.nj.us/> and create a portal account. Once your portal account is created you are prompted to enter your authorization code. This is Step 1 of the process, which you need only do once.

If you have already been issued an authorization code in the past you do not need to request another one. You can log into your account on the Garden State Network at <http://www.state.nj.us> and under the heading NJ L&PS Applications you will see the Attorney General's Advocacy Institute's Registration System. Click on that and log into your account on our system.

Upon setting up your portal account, you need to set up your AGAI Course Registration System account. This is Step 2. To do so, log on to the My New Jersey Portal <http://www.state.nj.us/>. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a new user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.
