CLE Credit

Please see each individual course description below for CLE credit amounts. Attendees will be able to apply the credits earned at these programs toward their New Jersey newly admitted lawyer requirements under BCLE Reg. 201:2.

How Do I Register?

You must apply separately for each presentation that you would like to attend. Registering for one presentation does not register you for the entire day or for any other presentations.

State Employees

Most State employees are able to register for this course by going to <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> and creating an AGAI Course Registration account. To do so, your computer must be attached to the government's Garden State Network. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.

Non-State Employees or State Employees not Connected to the Garden State Network

If you are not a State employee, or are otherwise unable to access the AGAI Course Registration System through the Garden State Network, kindly email the Advocacy Institute at: njagai@njoag.gov for an authorization code to allow you access to the AGAI Course Registration System through the My New Jersey portal. Setting up your account through the portal is a two-step process, the details of which are set forth in the next two paragraphs.

Once you receive the portal authorization code you will be prompted to go to the My New Jersey portal at <http://www.state.nj.us/> and create a portal account. Once your portal account is created you are prompted to enter your authorization code. This is Step 1 of the process, which you need only do once.

If you have already been issued an authorization code in the past you do not need to request another one. You can log into your account on the Garden State Network at <http://www.state.nj.us> and under the heading NJ L&PS Applications you will see the Attorney General's Advocacy Institute's Registration System. Click on that and log into your account on our system.

Upon setting up your portal account, you need to set up your AGAI Course Registration System account. This is Step 2. To do so, log on to the My New Jersey Portal <http://www.state.nj.us/>. Upon opening the AGAI Course Registration System home page, you will see the Create Account link in the Login Box. Click on it and create your account, which will include you selecting a new user name and password. Once you create your account, you can access the AGAI Course Registration System at <http://reg2.dcj.lps.state.nj.us/lpcreg/login.aspx?portalid=2> to register for future courses or to manage your account. Please retain your user name and password for your records.

REAL ESTATE CLOSINGS

4:00 p.m. – 5:15 p.m.

This presentation will provide a basic overview of the real estate closing process in New Jersey. Among the topics addressed will be: the attorney's role in preparing for and participating in a closing, the common documents needed to ensure that closing can occur, the various adjustments to which parties are entitled, and the proper recordation of the closing documents. Closings on commercial and residential properties occur every day. Participants will leave this presentation with a clearer understanding of a common, yet sometimes complicated, process.

Ian S. Bloom is a founding partner of UHB Law Group and focuses his practice on real estate, criminal defense, and municipal court matters. Shortly after becoming admitted to the New Jersey Bar, Ian opened up his own practice in Hamilton, New Jersey where he primarily handled motor vehicle and traffic matters. Ian is a graduate of Albany Law School. While attending law school, Ian served as an intern for the Albany District Attorney's Office, where he spent two years in the vehicular crime unit, primarily working on DWI cases. He also interned at the Public Defender's Office, working on traffic court and county drug court matters. Ian has also served as a member of the Howell Zoning Board.

Kevin L. Uniglicht is a founding partner of UHB Law Group and focuses his practice on real estate and social security disability matters. Prior to founding the UHB Law Group, Kevin handled insurance defense cases, managing the litigation unit of a large, New Jersey based auto insurance carrier. He was previously an associate in a mid-sized law firm where his practice included complex litigation, personal injury, insurance defense, land use and zoning, "green" energy consultation and real estate. Kevin started his legal career as a Deputy Attorney General with the Department of Law and Public Safety, working on environmental litigation. Kevin attended law school at the Syracuse University College of Law, where he founded the National Security and Counter Terrorism Association and held the position of Associate Editor for the Syracuse Digest. Upon completion of law school, Kevin served as a Law Clerk and a Civil Mediator for the Honorable Ira E. Kreizman of the Monmouth County, New Jersey Superior Court.
