The Advocacy Institute Is Pleased to Present

BASIC ESTATE ADMINISTRATION

December 15, 2020
11:00 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.

WEBINAR

Program Summary

This presentation will focus on the more formal aspects of estate administration, which is the process of distributing the property of a deceased individual to the persons who are designated by the decedent or the application of law to be the recipients of such property. It can involve court-supervised processes, such as formal probate and administration, as well as informal processes, such as the filing of beneficiary claims forms or changing the registration on joint accounts.

Eligibility

This program is open to attorneys in the Department of Law and Public Safety and county prosecutors' offices. Registrants will receive the course materials prior to the program date.

Faculty

Fiona Van Dyck, Esq. is the founding partner of the firm Van Dyck Law, LLC, in Princeton, N.J., where she concentrates her practice in estate planning, including: wills, trusts and asset protection planning, estate administration, elder law and guardianships.
