The Advocacy Institute Is Pleased to Present

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN EMPLOYMENT LAW

March 9, 2021
11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

WEBINAR

Program Summary

This presentation will explore recent developments in employment law. The presenter will review New Jersey's newly enacted employment laws, provide insight on how Covid-19 continues to impact the workplace, discuss social unrest and an employer's right to police employees' off-duty conduct. The program will include facilitated discussion, with time for questions and perspectives, which will provide students with strategies for litigating employment matters, combatting bias, and navigating the workplace climate created by current events.

Eligibility

Registration for this program is limited to Deputy and Assistant Attorneys General in the State Police, Employment and Corrections, Tort, and Employment Counseling Sections of the Division of Law. Registrants will receive the course materials prior to the program date.

Faculty

DAG Daveon M. Gilchrist is a member of the Division of Law's State Police, Employment and Corrections Section ("SPEC") where he represents State agencies and employees in complex employment and Section 1983 matters. Prior to joining SPEC, DAG Gilchrist was a member of the Tort Litigation and Judiciary Section of the Division of Law, where he represented State agencies and their employees in complex tort and civil rights cases. Prior to joining the Division of Law, DAG Gilchrist held several public sector positions, including serving as a legislative aide for a Newark councilman and as a Hudson County assistant prosecutor. DAG Gilchrist was a law clerk to the Hon. Thomas W. Summers, Jr., New Jersey Superior Court, Appellate Division. He holds an undergraduate degree from Morehouse College and a J.D. from Rutgers School of Law-Newark.
