WEBINAR

Program Summary

This program focuses on enhancing the skills needed to elicit information and obtain admissions effectively through depositions. Participants will develop and sharpen their deposition skills by conducting deposition examinations and defending depositions in a simulated setting, followed by faculty guidance and feedback. The workshop exercises will focus on addressing preliminary matters, techniques for effectively eliciting complete information from witnesses, making and responding to objections, dealing with difficult adversaries, using exhibits, and obtaining admissions. The program also includes presentations on the components of effective depositions.

Eligibility

This program is for Division of Law deputies who have been selected to attend by their supervisors. Registrants will receive the course materials prior to the program date.

Faculty

The faculty consists of Division of Law deputy and assistant attorneys general and other attorneys who have extensive deposition experience.

CLE Credit

NJ CLE Credit: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 12.3 hours of Alternative Verifiable Learning Format (AVF) total CLE credit. Of these, 0.0 qualify as hours of credit for ethics/professionalism and 12.3 qualify as hours of credit toward certification in civil trial law.

Registration

Those who are eligible to apply should use the Zoom Webinar registration link in the Program Announcement email. Students who are registered will receive a confirmation email with a link to access the program.

Students must download Zoom before the webinar in order for the AGAI to record polling responses that are required for attendance verification and CLE credit.

The AGAI will be unable to verify attendance or grant CLE credit to students who have not downloaded Zoom before the webinar.
