PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

The Advocacy Institute Is Pleased to Present

Telemedicine Driven Claims

September 27, 2021
10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.
(agenda attached)

WEBINAR

Program Summary

This presentation will provide insight into the past, present and future of telemedicine claims. The presenter will explore the regulation and history of these claims and dissect their present-day form. The program will also cover how an insurer can be exploited and how to investigate these claims as an affirmative fraud.

Eligibility

Registration for this program is limited to those who the New Jersey Office of the Insurance Fraud Prosecutor and the National Insurance Crime Bureau have invited to attend. Registrants will receive the course materials prior to the program date.

Faculty

Jeffrey G. Rapattoni, Esq. is an attorney with Marshall Dennehey in Mount Laurel, N.J., where he is chair of the PIP Litigation Practice Group and co-chair of the firm's Fraud/Special Investigation Practice Group. Mr. Rapattoni focuses his practice on insurance fraud, PIP, risk management and SIU-related matters in various industries. He is national coordinating counsel to several insurance companies and assists clients with developing strategies for defending complex litigation related to medical provider fraud, PIP and other emerging insurance issues. He holds a B.A. from Villanova University and a J.D. from Rutgers Law School.

CLE Credit

NJ CLE Credit: This program had been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.8 hours of Alternative Verifiable Learning Format (AVF) CLE credit. Of these, 0.0 qualify as hours of credit for ethics/professionalism.

Registration

Those who are eligible to apply should use the Zoom Webinar registration link in the Program Announcement email. Students who are registered will receive a confirmation email with a link to access the program.

Students must download Zoom before the webinar in order for the AGAI to record polling responses that are required for attendance verification and CLE credit.

The AGAI will be unable to verify attendance or grant CLE credit to students who have not downloaded Zoom before the webinar.
