The Advocacy Institute Is Pleased to Present

Litigating Pretrial Detention Appeals

October 22, 2021
1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.

WEBINAR

Program Summary

This presentation will cover a range of topics that all prosecuting attorneys should master to ensure the best possible result in a pretrial detention appeal. The program will cover the decision whether to appeal, documents required to perfect appeals, requests for stays, motions for reconsideration, responding to checklists and briefs, and how to write pretrial detention appeals if DCJ is the appellant.

Eligibility

This program is mandatory for new assistant prosecutors and Division of Criminal Justice deputies hired after October 2020 who have been selected to attend by each county prosecutor's office and the Division of Criminal Justice. Other assistant prosecutors and Division of Criminal Justice deputies are welcome to register.

Faculty

DAG Sarah Hunt serves in the Appellate Bureau of the Division of Criminal Justice, where she litigates criminal appeals in the Appellate Division and Supreme Court. She is a member of the Bureau's working groups on Pretrial Detention/Speedy Trial, Evidence, DWI/Municipal Court, and Wiretaps, and has received an Attorney General's Award for Outstanding Contribution to a Special Project for her work on Criminal Justice Reform, and DCJ Director's Award for Excellence in Appellate Litigation. Prior to joining the Division, DAG Hunt clerked in the Appellate Division for the Honorable Garry S. Rothstadt, J.A.D. She received a B.A. from Bates College and a J.D. from Rutgers School of Law - Newark, where she was a Managing Notes Editor of the Rutgers Law Review, a Marsha Wenk Public Interest Law Fellow, and a Proskauer Rose Fellow.
