

PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

The Advocacy Institute Is Pleased to Present

Abstention and the 10th and 11th Amendments

March 10, 2022
10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

WEBINAR

Program Summary

This presentation will explore the various abstention doctrines with which federal court practitioners must be familiar and provide an overview of the immunities afforded State agencies and the State pursuant to the Tenth and Eleventh Amendments to the United States Constitution. This presentation will also touch upon the leading United States Supreme Court opinions in these areas and will provide practice points for civil motion practice employing these defenses.

Eligibility

This program is open to attorneys in the Department of Law and Public Safety and county prosecutors' offices. Registrants will receive the course materials prior to the program date.

Faculty

AAG Michael C. Walters is a Deputy Director in the Division of Law. He previously served as the Assistant Attorney General in Charge of Litigation. Prior to that position, he was the Section Chief of the Education & Higher Education Section, where he supervised the coordination and development of litigation strategy for representing the New Jersey Department of Education and New Jersey colleges and universities. He has briefed and argued cases involving a wide range of issues before the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, the New Jersey Appellate Division and the Third Circuit Court of Appeals. He began his career as a law clerk for The Honorable Myron H. Gottlieb, J.S.C and graduated from Rutgers School Law in 1998.

AAG Daniel M. Vannella is an Assistant Attorney General with the Litigation Practice Group in the Division of Law. Prior to that, he was the Chief of the Tort Litigation & Judiciary Section, as well as a deputy and then an Assistant Chief with the Corrections & State Police Section. AAG Vannella has handled and supervised a large number of state/federal litigation and appellate matters involving constitutional, civil rights, and tort issues. He has argued before the Supreme Court of New Jersey, the Third Circuit, and the Appellate Division, and defended five jury trials before the U.S. District of New Jersey. AAG Vannella previously worked for the Cumberland County Prosecutor's Office, in private practice, and as a law clerk for the Honorable Richard J. Geiger, J.S.C. He obtained his B.A., magna cum laude, from The College of New Jersey, and his J.D. from William & Mary Law School.

CLE Credit

NJ CLE Credit: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 2.0 hours of Alternative Verifiable Learning Format (AVF) total CLE credit. Of these, 0.0 qualify as hours of credit for ethics/professionalism.

Registration

Those who are eligible to apply should use the Zoom Webinar registration link in the Program Announcement email. Students who are registered will receive a confirmation email with a link to access the program.

Students must download Zoom before the webinar in order for the AGAI to record polling responses that are required for attendance verification and CLE credit.

The AGAI will be unable to verify attendance or grant CLE credit to students who have not downloaded Zoom before the webinar.