PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

The Advocacy Institute Is Pleased to Present

Effective Oral Advocacy

June 14, 2022

1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Richard J. Hughes Justice Complex
Advocacy Institute Conference Center
Fourth Floor, West Wing
25 Market Street, Trenton, New Jersey

Program Summary

Oral argument is a critical part of litigation, both at the trial and appellate court levels. During a trial or hearing, it often plays a significant role in the outcome of a case. Oral argument also plays a substantial role in appellate advocacy and is consistently used to help appellate courts make well-reasoned decisions that will serve as precedent for future cases. This presentation will provide resources to assist deputies in developing the skills necessary to be successful whether arguing before a trial or an appellate court.

Eligibility

Registration for this program is limited to deputies in the Division of Law's Trenton Administrative Practice Group.

Faculty

AAG Daniel F. Dryzga is the AAG in charge of the Division of Law's Trenton Administrative Practice Group. He has overall responsibility for management of the seven sections that comprise the practice group and provides supervision and policy direction for handling administrative hearings throughout the Division. AAG Dryzga has significant litigation experience in both State and federal courts. Previously, AAG Dryzga was the Director of the New Jersey Attorney General's Advocacy Institute, where he administered and developed high quality legal education programs that met the needs of New Jersey government lawyers. Prior to that, he was an Assistant Chief of the Education and Higher Education Section and a Deputy Attorney General in the Corrections and State Police Section of the Division of Law, where he defended lawsuits brought against members of the New Jersey State Police. AAG Dryzga also served with the Office of Government Integrity and the Division of Criminal Justice in the Department of Law and Public Safety. He conducted criminal and civil investigations concerning waste, fraud, and abuse in public school construction projects and criminally prosecuted individuals and companies for improprieties in those projects. He additionally served as an Assistant Inspector General in the New Jersey Office of the Inspector General. AAG Dryzga received his B.A., from Pennsylvania State University, and his J.D. from Rutgers University Law School- Newark.

AAG Melissa Dutton Schaffer supervises attorneys in the seven sections that comprise the Trenton Administrative Practice Group of the Division of Law.
