Program Summary

This program will cover current appellate issues including narration of videos, continuing Miranda issues, waived-juvenile sentencings and resentencings, updates on Zingis (Cassidy cases) and Olenowski (DRE) litigation and pending changes to the appellate rules.

Eligibility

This program is designed for attorneys in the Division of Criminal Justice and county prosecutors' offices. However, it is open to all deputy and assistant attorneys general in the Department of Law and Public Safety. Registrants will receive the course materials prior to the program date.

Faculty

AAG Carol M. Henderson is Chief of the Appellate Bureau of the Division of Criminal Justice. She has briefed and argued over 60 cases before the New Jersey Supreme Court in addition to litigating cases before the Appellate Division, the United States District Court, and the Third Circuit Court of Appeals. AAG Henderson is an instructor for the Attorney General's Advocacy Institute, the NJSBA and ICLE and has published articles on appellate practice, habeas litigation, interlocutory appeals, sentencing, legal writing, and prosecutor ethics and conduct. In 2008, she was the recipient of the New Jersey County Prosecutors' Association award for "Outstanding Advocacy over a Career." AAG Henderson graduated with honors from Ramapo College of New Jersey and received her law degree from Seton Hall Law School.

DAG Frank Muroski is a Deputy Chief in the Division of Criminal Justice's Appellate Bureau, where he has served for 18 years. Before joining DCJ, DAG Muroski worked as an Assistant Prosecutor in Union County. DAG Muroski served as a law clerk for two criminal trial judges in Union County and holds a J.D from Rutgers-Camden Law School.

DAG Jennifer Kmiecik is a Deputy Chief in the Division of Criminal Justice's Appellate Bureau. She handles criminal matters before the Law Division, Appellate Division and Supreme Court and filed a United States Supreme Court amicus brief on behalf of New Jersey and 17 other states in Birchfield v. North Dakota, a case implicating the constitutionality of DUI implied-consent laws. DAG Kmiecik is a PTC certified instructor and regularly teaches programs on the Fourth Amendment to law enforcement officers and prosecutors. She received an Attorney General's Award for Excellence in Appeals in 2016 and for Trial Assistance in 2012. DAG Kmiecik clerked in the Appellate Division for the Honorable Victor Ashrafi, J.A.D. She received a B.A. from The College of New Jersey, summa cum laude, and a J.D. from the Rutgers School of Law-Camden, magna cum laude.
