How to Prosecute an Appeal

October 6, 2022
2:15 p.m. to 3:15 p.m.

WEBINAR

Program Summary

This presentation will cover a range of fundamental topics on the subject of appeals that all prosecuting attorneys should be aware of to ensure the best possible result on appeal. Topics covered will include the decision whether to appeal, documents required to perfect appeals, requests for stays, motions for reconsideration and petitions for certification, jurisdiction, leave to appeal and remands.

Eligibility

This program is mandatory for new assistant prosecutors and Division of Criminal Justice deputies hired after October 2021 who have been selected to attend by each county prosecutor's office and the Division of Criminal Justice. Other assistant prosecutors and Division of Criminal Justice deputies are welcome to register. Registrants will receive the course materials prior to the program date.

Faculty

AAG Carol M. Henderson is Chief of the Division of Criminal Justice's Appellate Bureau. She has briefed and argued over 65 cases before the New Jersey Supreme Court and litigated cases before the Appellate Division, the United States District Court, and the Third Circuit Court of Appeals. AAG Henderson teaches for the Attorney General's Advocacy Institute and ICLE. She has published articles on appellate practice, habeas litigation, interlocutory appeals, sentencing, legal writing, and prosecutor ethics and conduct. In 2008, she received the New Jersey County Prosecutors' Association award for "Outstanding Advocacy over a Career" and was honored in 2015 as the Mercer County Bar Association's Professional Lawyer of the Year. AAG Henderson is a former chairperson of the NJSBA's Criminal Law Section and the Appellate Practices Committee. She is a graduate of Seton Hall Law School and Ramapo College of New Jersey.
