

PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

The Advocacy Institute Is Pleased to Present

Criminal Code Issues

October 13, 2022
1:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.

WEBINAR

Program Summary

This interactive seminar will teach students how to analyze cases at the investigatory stage, the charging stage, and the trial stage. Students will learn both how to spot issues and the proper method for handling them. They will be presented with hypotheticals with changing fact patterns to expand their ability to analyze cases. The program will also feature real life examples from the presenter's over seventeen years of experience as a prosecutor.

Eligibility

This program is mandatory for new assistant prosecutors and Division of Criminal Justice deputies hired after October 2021 who have been selected to attend by each county prosecutor's office and the Division of Criminal Justice. Other assistant prosecutors and Division of Criminal Justice deputies are welcome to register. Registrants will receive the course materials prior to the program date.

Faculty

Assistant Prosecutor Joseph MacNamara is the Section Chief of the Grand Jury Unit of the Camden County Prosecutor's Office. He has served as an Assistant Prosecutor with the CCPO for 19 years in the Motions, Juvenile and Trial Team Units. Assistant Prosecutor MacNamara holds an undergraduate degree from Rutgers University-Camden and a J.D. from Rutgers-Camden Law School.
