The Advocacy Institute Is Pleased to Present

The DOL Basic Civil & Administrative Practice Series (“BCAP”)

Appellate Practice

November 2, 2022
1:00 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.

WEBINAR

Program Summary

This presentation on State appellate practice will provide an overview of the rules governing civil appeals in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Appellate Division and the Supreme Court of New Jersey, and their impact on the Division of Law’s appellate practice. Among the topics covered are motion practice, emergent and interlocutory review and the difference in jurisdiction between the Appellate Division and Supreme Court. The presenters will also address the Division’s appellate policies.

Eligibility

This program is mandatory for Division of Law Deputy Attorneys General hired after April 2022 who have not previously completed the Basic Civil and Administrative Practice (BCAP) series of courses. DOL deputies who are required to take this program must register for all BCAP sessions.

Other Division of Law deputies are welcome to attend this program. Registrants will receive the course materials prior to the program date.

Faculty

AAG Melissa Raksa is the AAG in Charge of the Division of Law’s Appellate Practice Group. She and her colleagues oversee the Division’s appellate work, which consists of approximately 2,000 pending appeals filed in the Appellate Division, the Supreme Court of New Jersey, and the Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, and the Supreme Court of the United States. During her tenure with DOL, AAG Raksa has served as a DAG in the Banking & Insurance and Labor, Personnel & Community Affairs Sections (now CASE), Lead DAG in the Insurance Fraud Unit, and Assistant Section Chief and then Section Chief of the Health & Human Services Section. She was an Appellate Division clerk for the Honorable Mary Catherine Cuff, J.A.D. AAG Raksa received a J.D. from Villanova School of Law and a B.A. from Cornell University.
