

PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

The Advocacy Institute Is Pleased to Present

An Introduction to DHS Policy Circular P 1.09 for Health and Human Services Deputies

November 29, 2022
10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

R.J. Hughes Justice Complex
8th Floor, West Wing, Conference Room 8-130
Trenton, New Jersey

Note: This program will also be simulcast as a webinar.

Program Summary

This course will introduce DAsG in the Division of Law's Health and Human Services Section to DHS Policy Circular P1.09, which requires the review and approval of all mergers, acquisitions, affiliations, changes in ownership and other transactions affecting DHS contracts. The presenter will provide a primer on the P1.09 review process, outlining primary issues of concern and reviewing the most common documents involved in the review, such as the Standard Language Document, assignments of contract, capital funding agreements, and mortgages.

Eligibility

Attendance at this program is limited to deputies in the Division of Law's Health and Human Services Section.

Faculty

DAG Jeanette M. Barnard is a member of the Health & Human Services Section of the Division of Law. Her practice includes representing the NJ Department of Health and NJ Department of Human Services, in a variety of legal areas, including contracts and defensive and affirmative litigation before administrative tribunals, trial courts, and appellate courts at the state level. She serves as counsel for the Catastrophic Illness in Children Relief Fund. Prior to joining the Division of Law, she practiced Trusts and Estates at a private firm. DAG Barnard received a B.A. with Honors in History at Duke University, where her Honor's Thesis entitled, "The United States and the Marshall Islands: A Nuclear Relationship Approved by the United Nations," is archived at the Perkins Library. She received a J.D. from Rutgers University School of Law where she served as Staff and Articles Editor on the Rutgers Law Journal, as President of the Women's Law Caucus, and received the National Association of Women Lawyers Award.

CLE Credit

NJ CLE Credit: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.2 hours of total CLE credit. Of these, 0.0 qualify as hours of credit for ethics/professionalism.

PA CLE Credit: 1.0 Substantive Credit ($1.50 mandatory registration fee required).

Registration

Attorneys eligible to attend this program will receive registration instructions from the AGAI.