

PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

The Advocacy Institute Is Pleased to Present

Basic Estate Planning

December 8, 2022
10:00 a.m. – 11:15 p.m.

WEBINAR

Program Summary

This presentation will focus on the documents that comprise the foundation of basic estate planning and the factors to consider when drafting them. Estate planning involves not only the determination of who will inherit your property after your death, but who will take care of you and your property before your death if you should become incapacitated. Estate planning should also include actions intended to minimize taxes and address issues related to the care and custody of minor children and individuals with special needs.

Eligibility

This program is open to attorneys in the Department of Law and Public Safety and county prosecutors' offices.

Faculty

Fiona Van Dyck, Esq. is the founding partner of the firm Van Dyck Law, LLC, in Princeton, N.J., where she concentrates her practice in estate planning, including: wills, trusts and asset protection planning, estate administration, elder law and guardianships. Ms. Van Dyck is a member of the Mercer County Estate Planning Council, Wealth Counsel, Elder Counsel and the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA). Ms. Van Dyck lectures on estate planning, asset protection and elder law issues to various private and public groups and has written on various estate planning issues. Ms. Van Dyck received her undergraduate degree from Rutgers University in New Brunswick, New Jersey and her law degree from Rutgers School of Law – Camden. She also holds an LL.M. from the University of London with a concentration in business law.
