1:00 p.m. - 2:15 p.m.

WEBINAR

Program Summary

Client Services are an integral part of the practice of law. To a large degree, your success as an attorney is linked to how well you can meet the needs of your client. This program covers your responsibilities in representing clients. It will also address time keeping practices designed to better assist both deputies and their clients.

Eligibility

This program is mandatory for Division of Law Deputy Attorneys General hired after October 2022 who have not previously completed the Basic Civil and Administrative Practice (BCAP) series of courses. DOL deputies who are required to take this program must register for all BCAP sessions. Other Division of Law deputies are welcome to attend this program.

Faculty

Michael T.G. Long is the Director of the Division of Law. As such, he leads the largest law firm in the State with over 500 attorneys, which is responsible for providing legal advice and counseling to executive branch agencies. Formerly a litigation partner with Lowenstein Sandler, he has handled a range of work in the private sector, including internal investigations, complex commercial litigation, and state and federal appeals. Director Long clerked for the Honorable James R. Zazzali of the Supreme Court of New Jersey. He received a B.A. from Boston College and a J.D. from Seton Hall University School of Law.

DAG Dianne Moratti is the Section Chief of the State Police, Employment and Corrections Section of the Division of Law. She primarily represents the Department of Corrections in federal civil rights lawsuits filed in both federal and State court. She was previously a member of the former FedCor Section of the Division of Law. DAG Moratti worked in private practice for several years before joining the Division. She completed a federal clerkship with the Hon. Jerome B. Simandle, U.S.D.J. and holds a J.D. from Rutgers Law School – Camden.

DAG Sudha V. Raja is the Deputy Chief of Staff in the Division of Law. She was previously an Assistant Section Chief in the Transportation, Construction & Condemnation Section and started with DOL as a DAG in the Treasury Section. DAG Raja has extensive litigation experience, primarily handling construction litigation. She received a 2016 Attorney General’s award for excellence in litigation. DAG Raja graduated from Temple University School of Law.

CLE Credit

NJ CLE Credit: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.5 hours of Alternative Verifiable Learning Format (AVF) total CLE credit. Of these, 0.0 qualify as hours of credit for ethics/professionalism.

Registration

Those who are eligible to apply should use the Zoom Webinar registration link in the Program Announcement email. Students who are registered will receive a confirmation email with a link to access the program.

Students must download Zoom before the webinar in order for the AGAI to record polling responses that are required for attendance verification and CLE credit.

The AGAI will be unable to verify attendance or grant CLE credit to students who have not downloaded Zoom before the webinar.
