Richard J. Hughes Justice Complex
Advocacy Institute Conference Center
Fourth Floor, West Wing
25 Market Street, Trenton, New Jersey

Note: This program will also be simulcast as a webinar.

Program Summary

This program will provide an overview of using Sanction trial presentation software during trials and other court proceedings, including the powerful benefits of utilizing this software to present a case. The presenters will discuss some of the practical aspects of preparing a Sanction case for trial, such as tips on planning ahead, collaborating with the trial team, equipment considerations and using the software to prepare witnesses for testimony. They will also incorporate examples of exhibits and synchronized recordings used in actual trials and a discussion on trial strategy and the use of exhibits during witness testimony and summations.

Eligibility

This program is designed for deputies in the Division of Criminal Justice, the Office of Public Integrity & Accountability, the Office of the Insurance Fraud Prosecutor and assistant county prosecutors. Although the presenters will focus on the use of Sanction in criminal trials, deputies from the Division of Law are welcome to attend, space allowing.
