

PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

The Advocacy Institute Is Pleased to Present

Juvenile Waiver and Related Suppression Motion Practice

August 24, 2023

1:30 p.m. – 2:45 p.m.

Cumberland County Prosecutor's Office
Room 235
115 Vine Street, Bridgeton, NJ

Program Summary

In State in the Interest of E.S., 252 N.J. 331 (2022), the New Jersey Supreme Court addressed juvenile waiver motions under 2A:4A-26.1 and related suppression motion practice in Family Court, including the timing and venue of suppression motions in juvenile matters in which waiver motions have been filed. This program will examine the holding in E.S.. The instructors will discuss the surrounding case law in relation to juvenile waiver motions and the strategic implications of when and before which Court related suppression motions are litigated.

Eligibility

Registration for this program is limited to Cumberland County assistant prosecutors.

Faculty

Harold B. Shapiro is the First Assistant Prosecutor for Cumberland County. Prior to that position, he was engaged private practice with Shapiro and Shapiro, which included serving as an assigned Criminal Justice Act attorney in New Jersey Federal Court, as a Solicitor and Negotiator for the Cumberland County Board of Social Services and as Associate Solicitor for the Vineland Board of Education. FAP Shapiro was also an Assistant Federal Public Defender for the District of New Jersey. He began his career as a law clerk for The Honorable Stanley S. Brotman, United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, after receiving a J.D. with honors from Rutgers Law School – Newark.

Assistant Prosecutor Kevin Guinan is the Executive Assistant Prosecutor and Chief of Staff in the Cumberland County Prosecutor's Office. He previously served in the Juvenile and Special Litigation Units, including as Team Leader and Section Chief of the Juvenile Unit. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Management from St. Joseph's University and a Juris Doctor from Rutgers Law School – Camden.

Assistant Prosecutor Veronica A. Byrd is a member of the Juvenile Unit at the Cumberland County Prosecutor's Office. Prior to joining the Cumberland County Prosecutor's office, she clerked for the Honorable Thomas T. Booth J.S.C., of the Camden County Superior Court. AP Byrd graduated Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology from Spelman College and holds a Juris Doctor from Rutgers University Law School.

CLE Credit

NJ CLE Credit: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.5 hours of total CLE credit. Of these, 1.5 qualify as hours of credit toward certification in criminal trial law and 0.0 qualify as hours of credit for ethics/professionalism.