

PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

The Advocacy Institute Is Pleased to Present

Bail Reform Issues

October 24, 2023
2:15 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

WEBINAR

Program Summary

This course will analyze Attorney General Directive 2016-6, Establishing Interim Policies, Practices, and Procedures to Implement Criminal Justice Reform Pursuant to P.L. 2014, c. 31. The presenters will discuss:

- LiveScan fingerprinting.
- Pre-charging case screening.
- The PSA and decision making framework for complaints (warrant vs. summons).
- Affidavits of Probable Cause and Preliminary Law Enforcement Incident Reports.
- The prosecutor's role at first appearances.
- The decision making framework for pretrial detention applications.
- Motions to revoke release.
- Prosecutorial responses to violations of pretrial release conditions.
- Prioritization of reports and testing in detention cases.
- Web-based reporting.
- Escalating Plea Policy.

Eligibility

This program is mandatory for new assistant prosecutors and Division of Criminal Justice deputies hired after October 2022 who have been selected to attend by each county prosecutor's office and the Division of Criminal Justice. Other assistant prosecutors and Division of Criminal Justice deputies are welcome to register.

Faculty

DAG Heather Hausleben is the Deputy Chief of the Corruption Bureau in the Office of Public Integrity and Accountability, where she oversees the investigation and prosecution of crimes committed by and involving public officials, as well as public contract fraud. She was previously assigned to the Gangs and Organized Crimes Bureau of the Division of Criminal Justice, handling cases involving racketeering, distribution of controlled dangerous substances, weapons offenses, and human trafficking. In both roles, DAG Hausleben worked with OPIA's Integrity Bureau, where she was responsible for investigations involving police use of force and deaths in custody. She served as a law clerk for Camden County Superior Court Judge Samuel Natal. DAG Hausleben holds a Bachelor's of Arts in Philosophy from the University of South Florida and a Juris Doctor from Seton Hall Law School.

Anthony Talarico is a Chief Assistant Prosecutor at the Bergen County Prosecutor's Office, where he currently leads the Major Crimes Unit which investigates and prosecutes all homicide, fatal accident and arson cases in Bergen County. Chief AP Talarico previously served in the Narcotics Task Force, the Trial Section as a Supervisor and the Chief Legal Advisor to the North Jersey Regional Cold Case Task Force. Prior to joining the BCPO, he clerked in the Appellate Division for the Honorable Ellen Koblitz, J.A.D. He is a graduate of Fordham University and Rutgers Law School.

CLE Credit

NJ CLE Credit: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.5 hours of Alternative Verifiable Learning Format (AVF) total CLE credit. Of these, 0.0 qualify as hours of credit for ethics/professionalism.

Registration

Those who are eligible to apply should use the Zoom Webinar registration link in the Program Announcement email. Students who are registered will receive a confirmation email with a link to access the program.

Students must download Zoom before the webinar in order for the AGAI to record polling responses that are required for attendance verification and CLE credit.

The AGAI will be unable to verify attendance or grant CLE credit to students who have not downloaded Zoom before the webinar.