Disaster Response & Recovery Law

March 5, 2024
1:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.

WEBINAR

Program Summary

This program will cover disaster response and recovery law, including examples of legal guidance from Superstorm Sandy, COVID-19, and other major disasters.

Eligibility

This program is open to attorneys in the Department of Law and Public Safety and county prosecutors' offices.

Faculty

Dan Kelly is the Executive Director of the Governor's Disaster Recovery Office, where he coordinates the State's emergency response to catastrophic events like Superstorm Sandy, COVID-19, and Tropical Storm Ida. He is also responsible for the oversight and strategic coordination of billions of dollars in federal funds dedicated to disaster recovery and resilience projects. Prior to joining the Governor's Office, Director Kelly was an Assistant Attorney General serving as the Director of the Superstorm Sandy Compliance Unit at the New Jersey Office of the Attorney General. He was chiefly responsible for defending the State against federal audits of Sandy funds and provided legal guidance on disaster recovery matters to the Attorney General, the Governor's Office, and numerous State agencies. Before that, he was a Deputy Attorney General in the Division of Law, where he represented the State in civil litigation matters. Director Kelly received an undergraduate degree from the University of Pittsburgh and a Juris Doctor from Villanova Law School.

CLE Credit

NJ CLE Credit: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.2 hours of Alternative Verifiable Learning Format (AVF) total CLE credit. Of these, 0.0 qualify as hours of credit for ethics/professionalism.

Registration

Those who are eligible to apply should use the Zoom Webinar registration link in the Program Announcement email. Students who are registered will receive a confirmation email with a link to access the program.

Students must download Zoom before the webinar in order for the AGAI to record polling responses that are required for attendance verification and CLE credit.

The AGAI will be unable to verify attendance or grant CLE credit to students who have not downloaded Zoom before the webinar.
