Leadership in the Practice of Law

October 17, 2024

1:30 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Richard J. Hughes Justice Complex
Advocacy Institute Conference Center
Fourth Floor, West Wing
25 Market Street, Trenton, New Jersey

Program Summary

Leadership is an important part of the practice of law and is an essential skill for attorneys who hold a formal supervisory title. Attorney leaders are not only better equipped to manage their direct reports, they are also better able to manage cases and projects and ultimately serve their clients more effectively. This program will address general concepts of leadership and provide practical tips for applying them to become both a more effective leader and attorney. This course is specifically designed for attorneys in a formal supervisory role, but will also be of interest to attorneys who want to develop leadership skills in a more informal context.

Eligibility

Attendance at this program is limited to attorneys in the Department of Law and Public Safety.

Faculty

AAG Daniel F. Dryzga is the AAG in charge of the Division of Law's Trenton Administrative Practice Group. He has overall responsibility for management of the seven sections that comprise the practice group and provides supervision and policy direction for handling administrative hearings throughout the Division. AAG Dryzga has significant litigation experience in both State and federal courts. Previously, AAG Dryzga was the Director of the New Jersey Attorney General's Advocacy Institute, where he administered and developed high quality legal education programs that met the needs of New Jersey government lawyers. Prior to that, he was an Assistant Chief of the Education and Higher Education Section and a Deputy Attorney General in the Corrections and State Police Section of the Division of Law, where he defended lawsuits brought against members of the New Jersey State Police. AAG Dryzga also served with the Office of Government Integrity and the Division of Criminal Justice in the Department of Law and Public Safety. He conducted criminal and civil investigations concerning waste, fraud, and abuse in public school construction projects and criminally prosecuted individuals and companies for improprieties in those projects. He additionally served as an Assistant Inspector General in the New Jersey Office of the Inspector General. AAG Dryzga received his B.A., from Pennsylvania State University, and his J.D. from Rutgers University Law School- Newark.
