Arrest, Search, & Seizure

October 29, 2024
1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

WEBINAR

Program Summary

This program is a “whirlwind tour” of New Jersey search and seizure law, starting with the fundamentals for prosecutors and officers when addressing stop, frisk, arrest, and search issues under both the Fourth Amendment and Article 1, paragraph 7 of the New Jersey Constitution. The presenters will also provide guidance on handling suppression motions and recent developments and trends in the law, and employ hypothetical exercises to apply the concepts discussed.

Eligibility

This program is mandatory for new assistant prosecutors and Division of Criminal Justice deputies hired after October 2023 who have been selected to attend by each county prosecutor’s office and the Division of Criminal Justice. Other assistant prosecutors and Division of Criminal Justice deputies are welcome to register.

Faculty

DAG Frank Muroski is a Deputy Chief in the Division of Criminal Justice’s Appellate Bureau. He has represented the State in criminal matters before the Law Division, Appellate Division, and Supreme Court. In 2012, he filed an amicus curiae brief in the United States Supreme Court on behalf of New Jersey and 27 other states in a case addressing the deportation consequences of guilty pleas. DAG Muroski has taught courses on criminal law to law-enforcement officers, prosecutors, and judges. He has received three Attorney General’s Awards for Excellence in Appeals. Prior to joining the Division, DAG Muroski was an Assistant Prosecutor in the Union County Prosecutor’s Office. He also clerked for two criminal trial judges in the Union County Law Division. DAG Muroski received an A.A. in Criminal Justice from Union County College, a B.S. in Accounting from Rutgers-Newark, and a J.D. from the Rutgers School of Law-Camden.

DAG Sarah Brigham serves in the Division of Criminal Justice's Appellate Bureau. She has briefed and argued many criminal cases before the Appellate Division and Supreme Court of New Jersey in addition to litigating cases before the United States District Court. In 2017, she received an Attorney General's award for Outstanding Contribution to a Special Project for her work related to Criminal Justice Reform. Before joining the Division, she clerked for the Honorable Stuart L. Peim, J.S.C., in Union County. DAG Brigham received a B.A., summa cum laude with honors, from Syracuse University, and a J.D. from the University of Virginia School of Law.
