

PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

The Advocacy Institute Is Pleased to Present

Basic Estate Administration

February 5, 2025
1:00 p.m. – 2:15 p.m.

Richard J. Hughes Justice Complex
Advocacy Institute Conference Center
Fourth Floor, West Wing
25 Market Street, Trenton, New Jersey

 This program will also be simulcast as a webinar.

Program Summary

This presentation will focus on the more formal aspects of estate administration, which is the process of distributing the property of a deceased individual to the persons who are designated by the decedent or the application of law to be the recipients of such property. It can involve court-supervised processes, such as formal probate and administration, as well as informal processes, such as the filing of beneficiary claims forms or changing the registration on joint accounts.

Eligibility

This program is open to attorneys in the Department of Law and Public Safety and county prosecutors' offices. This program can be used to satisfy NJ CLE newly admitted lawyers' requirements in the Basic Estate Administration category.

Faculty

Fiona Van Dyck, Esq. is the founding partner of the firm Van Dyck Law, LLC, in Princeton, N.J., where she concentrates her practice in estate planning, including: wills, trusts and asset protection planning, estate administration, elder law and guardianships. Ms. Van Dyck is a member of the Mercer County Estate Planning Council, Wealth Counsel, Elder Counsel and the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA). Ms. Van Dyck lectures on estate planning, asset protection and elder law issues to various private and public groups and has written on various estate planning issues. Ms. Van Dyck received her undergraduate degree from Rutgers University in New Brunswick, New Jersey and her law degree from Rutgers School of Law – Camden. She also holds an LL.M. from the University of London with a concentration in business law.

CLE Credit

NJ CLE Credit: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.5 hours of total CLE credit. Of these, 1.5 qualify as hours of credit towards newly admitted lawyers' requirements/Basic Estate Administration, and 0.0 qualify as hours of credit for ethics/professionalism.

PA CLE Credit: 1.5 substantive credits ($3.00 mandatory registration fee required).

Registration

Attorneys who are eligible to attend this program should fill out the registration form linked in the live program announcement email.