NJ's Tenth Annual Human Trafficking Awareness Event

The War Memorial - Trenton, NJ

Located on Memorial Drive Near the State House in Trenton's Historic Capitol District.

Third Annual "Sergeant Noelle Holl" Award

In 2018 this award was named in recognition of Sgt. Noelle Holl (retired), for tireless efforts and unwavering dedication in the fight against human trafficking. We are proud to continue this annual award to publicly recognize a law enforcement officer for going above and beyond in helping victims of human trafficking by aggressively pursuing traffickers through investigation and prosecution, and raising awareness in New Jersey communities. Please join us to congratulate the 2019 recipient of this prestigious award.

Keynote Speaker: Barbara Amaya

"I have personally experienced the juvenile justice and child welfare/foster care systems. As a vulnerable child I experienced the horrific extreme violence of child sexual abuse, then the trauma and violence of domestic minor sex trafficking and exploitation, when I was trafficked on the streets of Washington D.C. then New York City for over a decade."

Barbara Amaya is an award winning advocate, speaker, trainer, author of Amazon best selling memoir Nobody's Girl and graphic novel series The Destiny of Zoe Carpenter.

A survivor of human trafficking, Barbara has dedicated her life to combating human trafficking and violence against women and children. Barbara has been actively raising awareness of the sexual exploitation of children and domestic sex trafficking since 2012. Ms. Amaya is an author, human trafficking subject matter expert, consultant, trainer and lecturer. She shares her compelling story of overcoming trauma and adversity as a source of inspiration in all of her keynotes, presentations and trainings across the United States.

This FREE event is open to all. Walk-Ins Welcome.
