No Knock Warrant Reporting

December 21, 2021- December 31, 2021

Overview

AG Directive 2021-12 required all New Jersey law enforcement agencies to track applications for “No Knock Warrants” and provide an annual summary of those applications to the Attorney General. Agencies were required to send this information directly to their County Prosecutor. In turn, the County Prosecutor reported to the Attorney General whether any agency within their jurisdiction submitted any applications for no knock warrants for the initial reporting period of December 21, 2021 to December 31, 2021. If so, Prosecutor’s Offices provided a by agency count of:

- # of applications for “No Knock” provisions applied for to the court
- # of applications for “No Knock” provisions approved by a court
- # of No Knock entries justified by exigent circumstances

1st No Knock Warrant Reporting Period

December 21, 2021 to December 31, 2021

Attorney General Directive 2021-12 became effective on December 21, 2021, limiting the first reporting period to the last two weeks of 2021. This first reporting period covers only those two weeks in 2021. Accordingly, no County Prosecutor reported that an agency within their jurisdiction applied for a no knock warrant.
