Additional Information

On January 14, 1979, Gary L. Fowler was arrested for two instances of swindling and cheating while playing the game of blackjack at the Resorts International Casino. His activities were recorded on video tape and he had been warned by casino personnel about the illegality of past-posting bets. On February 6, 1980, Mr. Fowler entered a plea of guilty to two counts of committing larceny under the amount of $200 by swindling and cheating at casino gaming. Specifically, Mr. Fowler past-posted two wagers each in the amount of $50 while playing the game of blackjack. As a result of these illegal wagers, Mr. Fowler won a total of $100 to which he was not entitled. His plea of guilty was entered in Superior Court, Atlantic County, NJ. On the same date, Mr. Fowler was sentenced on each count to the Atlantic County Jail for a period of sixty days, the imposition of which was suspended. He was fined $150 on each of the above described counts and ordered to make restitution to Resorts in the amount of $100. Mr. Fowler executed a waiver form, wherein he waived his right to contest the placement of his name upon the exclusion list. Gary L. Fowler is not know to have any prior criminal record. A review of the January 14, 1979, video revealed that his illegal wagers were accomplished in a secretive manner, calculated to avoid detection by casino personnel or law enforcement authorities.
