Additional Information

On February 3, 1979, Mr. Jancik was arrested for three instances of swindling and cheating at casino gaming. Specifically, on three occasions when he past-posted illegal wagers at the game of blackjack, each in the amount of $50. On October 15, 1979, Mr. Jancik pled guilty to committing larceny under the amount of $200 by swindling and cheating at casino gaming. On the same date he was sentenced in Atlantic County, New Jersey, and received a fine of $250 with an order to make restitution to Resorts International Casino in the amount of $150. He further executed a waiver form, waiving his right to contest the placement of his name upon a list of persons to be excluded from licensed casino establishment within the State of New Jersey. Mr. Jancik, Jr., is not known to have a previous criminal record. Additionally, on February 3, 1979, Mr. Jancik was warned on several occasions that he was cheating. Mr. Jancik is deaf and mute and his warnings were written to him by casino personnel. He had made several previous efforts to swindle and cheat at casino gaming prior to his warnings by casino personnel. Mr. Jancik acknowledged through an interpreter that it was in his best interest to be barred from casino establishments within the State of New Jersey.
