Additional Information

On October 4, 1978, Mr. Limbaugh was arrested for two instances of swindling and cheating at casino gaming. Specifically, Mr. Limbaugh past-posted illegal wagers in the amount of $50 and $25 respectively, while playing the game of blackjack at the Resorts International Casino. On October 15, 1979, he entered a plea of guilty to two instances of committing larceny under the amount of $200 by swindling and cheating at casino gaming. On the same date, he was fined $500 and ordered to make restitution to the Resorts International Casino in the amount of $75. Mr. Limbaugh executed a waiver form, waiving his right to a hearing concerning the placement of his name upon a list of persons to be excluded from licensed casino establishments within the State of New Jersey. Mr. Limbaugh is not known to have a prior criminal record. On the date in question, Mr. Limbaugh was warned on several occasions about the placement of illegal wager. He was observed on video tape on one instance to past-post an illegal wager in the amount of $25 for which he was not charged. After being arrested, Mr. Limbaugh stated that he was not responsible for his actions, but that his actions were caused by the casino giving him alcoholic beverages.
