Realizing Potential Changing Futures

The New Jersey Juvenile Justice Commission (JJJ) is the State agency responsible for providing juvenile rehabilitation and parole services.

Established in 1995, the JJJ serves to coordinate services and policies affecting delinquent youth throughout the State. From prevention to parole, the JJJ is a partner in the entire juvenile justice system, working with communities to help redirect the lives of young people.

The JJJ has a challenging goal - to help young people turn their lives around and stay on the right track. The JJJ cares for juveniles placed in its custody by
