NUMBER OF POSITIONS AVAILABLE: One (1)

DUTIES: Under the supervision of the Director, Office of Communications within the Office of the Attorney General, or other supervisory official within the Department of Law and Public Safety (“Department”), the Public Information Officer is responsible for assigned work programs of the Office of Communications: develops and writes speeches, briefings, and other communications for the Office; translates the ideas, objectives, mission, and philosophy of the Office into written statements that relate to the assigned topic, speaker, and intended audience; performs outreach and communicates directly with members of the press; may supervise various Department outreach efforts to media and other stakeholders; may compose editorials, press releases, articles and/or educational materials representing the Office or Department; may assist the Attorney General’s Executive Staff and Division with speech delivery preparations, press conferences and other projects; will work independently and collaboratively within the Office of Communications. This position may also require non-traditional work hours, on an as needed basis, including evenings and weekends on short deadlines for certain assignments, with or without advance notice, and may require travel to perform the aforementioned responsibilities; performs other related work as required.

REQUIREMENTS

EDUCATION: Graduation from an accredited college or university with a Bachelor’s degree.

EXPERIENCE: Five (5) years of experience in the collection, analysis, preparation, and dissemination of information in a public relations and/or public information program in a public or private agency or organization, two (2) years of which shall have been in a supervisory capacity.

NOTE: Additional experience as indicated above may be substituted on a year-for-year basis for the above education. Thirty (30) semester hour credits are equal to one (1) year of experience.

NOTE: A Master's degree in Journalism, Public Relations, Communications, or English may be substituted for one (1) year of nonsupervisory experience.

LICENSE: Appointees will be required to possess a driver's license valid in New Jersey.

SPECIAL NOTE: This position may be filled as a Public Information Assistant in lieu of the above title. The salary range for a Public Information Assistant is $47,810.88 to 67,426.47 and requires a Bachelor’s degree plus one (1) year of experience in the collection, analysis, preparation, and dissemination of information in a public relations and/or public information program in a public or private agency or organization. The substitution of relevant experience for education and the substitution of education for experience (Master’s degree as indicated above) are permitted. The job description for the Public Information Assistant can be found in the job specification on file with the Civil Service Commission here: <https://info.csc.state.nj.us/jobspec/54452.htm>.

PREFERENCE: Preference will be given to applicants with extensive journalism or media relations experience.

RESUME NOTE: Eligibility determinations will be based upon information presented in resume only. Applicants who possess foreign degrees (degrees earned outside of the U.S.) are required to provide an evaluation indicating the U.S. equivalency prior to the closing date. Failure to do so will result in your ineligibility.
