NOTICE OF JOB VACANCY #21-294

An opportunity currently exists in the unclassified service with the Department of Law & Public Safety, Division on Civil Rights, for applicants who meet the requirements specified below:

TITLE: Investigator 2, Law & Public Safety
SALARY: $53,324.31 to $75,404.64
LOCATION: Division on Civil Rights
Enforcement Unit/Investigations Unit
1601 Atlantic Avenue, 6th Fl.
Atlantic City, NJ 08401
Statewide travel required for work responsibilities

NUMBER OF POSITIONS AVAILABLE: One (1)

The Division on Civil Rights (DCR) is charged with enforcing the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination (LAD) and Family Leave Act (FLA) and preventing and eliminating discrimination and bias-based harassment in New Jersey. DCR's Investigations Unit has a team of neutral investigators who investigate complaints of discrimination and bias-based harassment.

DUTIES: Under the general supervision of the Chief of Investigations and a Supervising Investigator, the Investigator 2 will investigate complaints of discrimination and bias-based harassment in a thorough and objective manner, including by reviewing relevant documents, interviewing witnesses, and gathering evidence to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the LAD or FLA has been violated. Duties will include conducting intake interviews and drafting verified complaints; drafting investigation plans, including witnesses to interview and documents to obtain; conducting interviews of parties and witnesses and summarizing relevant information learned from same; gathering and evaluating documents and other physical evidence from the parties and summarizing relevant information learned from same; conducting fact-finding conferences and site visits as necessary and summarizing relevant information learned from same; drafting a summary of the investigation at the conclusion of the investigation for review and edits from the Supervising Investigator; and facilitating settlement discussions when the parties choose to resolve a complaint. The Investigator 2 will be required to conduct complex investigations with general supervision and oversight, use DCR's online case management system (NJBias) to actively manage their caseload and move many investigations forward at the same time, and tailor all investigations only to what is relevant to the particular legal claim at issue; performs other related duties as required.

REQUIREMENTS

EDUCATION: Graduation from an accredited college with a Bachelor's degree.

EXPERIENCE: Two (2) year of experience in the conduct of civil or criminal investigations related to compliance, enforcement, detection, or surveillance activity; including the preparation of investigative reports; OR Two (2) year of experience in the conduct of investigative administrative audits and/or regulatory examinations of records maintained by businesses and organizations; OR Two (2) year of experience in the conduct of investigations for the government, the military, consumer protection programs, public advocacy organizations, or the public interest.

Applicants who do not possess the required education may substitute additional experience as indicated on a year-for-year basis with each year of experience being equivalent to thirty (30) semester hour credits.

Completion of a supervised internship field placement of 300 hours in an undergraduate curriculum in Criminal Justice or a related degree program may be substituted for one (1) year of the non-supervisory experience. A copy of your transcript indicating completion of the internship as part of your undergraduate degree program in Criminal Justice or a related degree program must be provided in order to meet this substitution requirement. Failure to do so may result in disqualification.

A Juris Doctorate degree or a Master's Degree in Criminal Justice, Public Administration, Business Administration, Law, or other related field may be substituted for one (1) year of the non-supervisory experience.

LICENSE: Appointees will be required to possess a driver's license valid in New Jersey.

PREFERENCE: Preference will be given to applicants who demonstrate commitment to the civil rights laws enforced by DCR and a New Jersey free of discrimination; demonstrated abilities to investigate complex civil rights cases with general supervision, to analyze large quantities of information and determine what is relevant to the legal claim; and to competently and professionally engage with members of the public, including while conducting witness interviews. Must also have excellent written and verbal communications skills and be extremely organized and detail oriented, able to keep many cases moving simultaneously.

RESUME NOTE: Eligibility determinations will be based upon information presented in resume only. Applicants who possess foreign degrees (degrees earned outside of the U.S.) are required to provide an evaluation indicating the U.S. equivalency prior to the closing date. Failure to do so may result in your ineligibility.

If qualified, please send a cover letter indicating interest in job vacancy announcement #21-294, a current resume and college transcripts (for internship substitutions only), on or before the closing date of September 23, 2021 to:
