The Division on Civil Rights (DCR) is charged with enforcing the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination and New Jersey Family Leave Act. DCR’s Investigations Unit has a team of neutral investigators who investigate complaints of discrimination and bias-based harassment.

DUTIES: Under the direction of the Chief of Investigations and a Supervising Investigator, will investigate complaints of discrimination and bias-based harassment in a thorough and objective manner. Duties include reviewing relevant documents; interviewing witnesses; gathering evidence to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the LAD has been violated; conducting intake interviews and drafting verified complaints; drafting investigation plans, including witnesses to interview and documents to obtain; conducting interviews of parties and witnesses and summarizing relevant information learned from same; gathering and evaluating documents and other physical evidence from the parties and summarizing relevant information learned from same; conducting fact-finding conferences and site visits as necessary and summarizing relevant information learned from same; drafting a summary of the investigation at the conclusion of the investigation for review and edits from the Supervising Investigator; and facilitating settlement discussions when the parties choose to resolve a complaint. Will use DCR’s on-line case management system (NJBIAS) to actively manage their caseload and move many investigations forward at the same time, and tailor all investigations only to what is relevant to the particular legal claim at issue; performs other related duties as required.

REQUIREMENTS
Investigator 1, Law and Public Safety:

EDUCATION: Graduation from an accredited college or university with a Bachelor’s degree.

EXPERIENCE: One (1) year of experience in the conduct of civil or criminal investigations related to compliance, enforcement, detection, or surveillance activity; including the preparation of investigative reports; OR One (1) year of experience in the conduct of investigative administrative audits and/or regulatory examinations of records maintained by businesses and organizations; OR One (1) year of experience in the conduct of investigations for the government, the military, consumer protection programs, public advocacy organizations, or the public interest.

Applicants who do not possess the required education may substitute experience as indicated on a year-for-year basis.

Completion of a supervised internship field placement of 300 hours in an undergraduate curriculum in Criminal Justice or a related degree program may be substituted for one (1) year of the non-supervisory experience. You must submit a copy of your transcripts to be eligible for the internship substitution.

Internships cannot be considered without receiving a copy of your transcript.

A Juris Doctorate degree or a Master's Degree in Criminal Justice, Public Administration, Business Administration, Law, or other related field may be substituted for one (1) year of the non-supervisory experience.
