NEWARK, NEW JERSEY 07101

IN THE MATTER OF: :

MORGAN STANLEY & CO. :
INCORPORATED :

CONSENT ORDER

CRD #8209. :

BEFORE AMY KOPLETON, ACTING BUREAU CHIEF

Pursuant to the authority granted to the Chief of the New Jersey Bureau of Securities (“Bureau Chief”) by the Uniform Securities Law (1997), N.J.S.A. 49:3-47 et seq. (“Securities Law”), and after investigation, review, and due consideration of the facts and statutory provisions set forth below, the Bureau Chief has determined that civil monetary penalties and additional monetary and other remedies be assessed against Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated (“Morgan Stanley”).

WHEREAS, the New Jersey Bureau of Securities (the “Bureau”) is the State agency with the responsibility to administer and enforce the Securities Law; and

WHEREAS, N.J.S.A. 49:3-67 authorizes the Bureau Chief from time to time to issue such Orders as are necessary to carry out the provisions of the Securities Law, upon a finding that the action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the provisions of the Securities Law; and

WHEREAS, Morgan Stanley is a broker-dealer registered with the Bureau; and

WHEREAS, coordinated investigations into Morgan Stanley in connection with certain of its marketing and sale of auction rate securities practices have been conducted under the auspices of a multistate task force comprised of members of the North American Securities Administrators Association (“NASAA”); and

WHEREAS, Morgan Stanley has cooperated with regulators conducting the investigation by responding to inquiries, providing documentary evidence and other materials, and providing regulators with access to information relating to the investigation; and

WHEREAS, Morgan Stanley has advised regulators of its agreement to resolve the investigations relating to its marketing and sale of ARS to retail investors; and

WHEREAS, Morgan Stanley agrees to, among other things, reimburse certain purchasers of auction rate securities, implement certain changes with respect to its marketing and sale of ARS, and make certain payments; and

WHEREAS, Morgan Stanley elects to waive permanently any right to a hearing and appeal under N.J.S.A. 52:14B-1 et seq., with respect to this Consent Order; and

WHEREAS, Morgan Stanley and the Bureau Chief wish to resolve these issues in accordance with the terms of this Consent Order and without the expense and delay that formal administrative proceedings would involve; and

WHEREAS, Morgan Stanley consents to the form and entry on this Consent Order without admitting or denying the findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth herein.

Accordingly, Morgan Stanley waives the following rights:

- a. To be afforded an opportunity for hearing on the Bureau Chief’s findings and conclusions of law in this Consent Order after reasonable notice within the meaning of N.J.S.A. 49:3-58(c)(2); and

- b. To seek judicial review of, or otherwise challenge or contend, the validity of this Consent Order; and

WHEREAS, the provisions set forth in this Consent Order constitute the entire agreement between the Bureau and Morgan Stanley.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Bureau Chief makes the following findings of fact:

1. Morgan Stanley admits the jurisdiction of the Bureau, neither admits nor denies the findings of fact and conclusions of law contained in this Consent Order, and consents to the entry of this Consent Order by the Bureau.

Unethical Practices in the Offer and Sale of Auction Rate Securities

2. Auction rate securities are financial instruments that include auction preferred shares of closed-end funds, municipal auction rate bonds, and various asset-backed auction rate bonds (collectively referred to herein as "ARS"). ARS are long-term instruments where the interest/dividend is reset weekly or monthly.
3. Morgan Stanley participated in the marketing and sale of ARS in New Jersey.
4. In certain instances, Morgan Stanley representatives advised certain clients that ARS were safe, liquid investments, when in fact ARS had significant liquidity risks associated with them.
5. Representatives of Morgan Stanley represented to certain customers of Morgan Stanley that ARS were short-term investments. In fact, because ARS are bonds with long-term maturities, their short-term liquidity was dependent on the successful operation of a bidding process known as a Dutch auction. Certain representatives of Morgan Stanley failed to disclose to certain customers with short-term liquidity needs that they might be unable to sell their ARS if the auction process failed.

6. In connection with the sale of ARS, certain Morgan Stanley representatives told certain investors that ARS were “just like cash” and “liquid with seven days notice.”

7. Morgan Stanley marketed ARS to investors within a brochure entitled “Money Market Instruments.” Within this brochure, ARS are listed under the subsection “Other Short-Term Instruments.”

8. Since it began participating in the ARS market, Morgan Stanley submitted support bids—purchase orders for the entirety of an ARS issue for which it acted as the sole or lead broker. Support bids were Morgan Stanley proprietary orders that would be filled, in whole or in part, if there was otherwise insufficient demand in an auction. When Morgan Stanley purchased ARS through support bids, ARS were then owned by Morgan Stanley and the holdings were recorded on Morgan Stanley’s balance sheet. For risk management purposes, Morgan Stanley imposed limits on the amounts of ARS it could hold in inventory.

9. Because many investors could not ascertain how much of an auction was filled through Morgan Stanley proprietary trades, they could not determine if auctions at Morgan Stanley were clearing because of normal marketplace demand or because Morgan Stanley was making up for the lack of demand through support bids. Generally, investors were also not aware that the liquidity of the ARS for which Morgan Stanley was the managing broker-dealer depended upon Morgan Stanley’s continued use of support bids. While Morgan Stanley could track its own inventory as a measure of the supply and demand for its auction rate securities, ordinary investors had no comparable ability to assess the operation of Morgan Stanley’s auctions. There was no way for such investors to monitor supply and demand in the market or to assess when broker-dealers might decide to stop supporting the market, thereby causing its collapse.

10. Starting in August 2007, the credit crisis and other deteriorating market conditions strained the ARS market. Some institutional investors withdrew from the market, decreasing demand for ARS.

11. The resulting market dislocation should have been evident to Morgan Stanley. Morgan Stanley's support bids filled the increasing gap in the demand in its auctions for ARS, sustaining the impression that the demand for auction rate securities had not decreased. As a result, Morgan Stanley's ARS inventory grew significantly, requiring Morgan Stanley to raise its risk management limits on its ARS inventory.

12. From the Fall of 2007 through February of 2008, demand for auction rate securities continued to erode and Morgan Stanley's ARS inventory reached unprecedented levels. Morgan Stanley eventually became aware of the increasing strains in the ARS market, and recognized the potential for widespread market failure. Morgan Stanley never disclosed these increasing risks of owning or purchasing ARS to its customers.

13. In February 2008, Morgan Stanley and other firms stopped supporting the auctions. Without the benefit of support bids, the ARS market collapsed, leaving investors who had been led to believe that these securities were cash alternative investments appropriate for managing short-term cash needs, holding long-term or perpetual securities that could not be sold at par value until and if the auctions cleared again.

Failure to Supervise

14. Although ARS are complex products, Morgan Stanley did not provide its sales or marketing staff with the training necessary to adequately explain these products or the mechanics of the auction process to their customers.

15. Morgan Stanley did not adequately train all of its brokers and financial advisers regarding the potential illiquidity of ARS, including the fact that Morgan Stanley may stop supporting the market.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Solely for the purpose of this Consent Order, and without admitting or denying the findings of fact and conclusion of law set forth herein, Morgan Stanley consents to the Bureau Chief making the following conclusions of law:

1. Morgan Stanley's conduct described above subjects Morgan Stanley to sanctions under N.J.S.A. 49:3-58(a)(2)(xi) (failure to supervise), and N.J.S.A. 49:3-58(a)(2)(vii) (unethical conduct in the securities business).

2. The activities set forth herein are grounds, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 49:3-58(a)(1), N.J.S.A. 49:3-58(a)(2)(vii), and N.J.S.A. 49:3-58(a)(2)(xi), for the initiation of administrative proceedings.

ORDER

On the basis of the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Morgan Stanley's consent to the entry of this Consent Order,

It is on this 20th day of April 2011, HEREBY ORDERED:

Specifically excluded from and not covered by this paragraph are any claims by the Bureau arising from or relating to the Order provisions contained herein.
2. This Consent Order is entered into solely for the purpose of resolving the investigation into Morgan Stanley's marketing and sale of auction rate securities, and is not intended to be used for any other purpose.
3. This Consent Order shall be binding upon Morgan Stanley and its successors and assigns as well as to successors and assigns of relevant affiliates with respect to all conduct subject to the provisions above and all future obligations, responsibilities, undertakings, commitments, limitations, restrictions, events, and conditions.

6. This amount constitutes the state of New Jersey’s proportionate share of the state settlement amount of $35 Million Dollars ($35,000,000.00).

7. In the event another state securities regulator determines not to accept Morgan Stanley's settlement offer, the total amount of the payment to the state of New Jersey shall not be affected.

Notwithstanding any other provision, "Small Businesses" does not include broker-dealers or banks acting as conduits for their customers.

11. 13. Retail ARS Investors may accept the Buyback Offer by notifying Morgan Stanley at any time before midnight, Eastern Time, January 11, 2009, or such later date and time as Morgan Stanley may in its sole discretion decide to extend the Offer Period. For a period of two years from the date of this Consent Order, upon request from any firm that is repurchasing auction rate securities, Morgan Stanley shall take reasonable steps to provide notice of that firm's offer to repurchase auction rate securities to Morgan Stanley customers that Morgan Stanley can reasonably identify, that hold such auction rate securities subject to the other firm's repurchase.

No later than December 11, 2008, Morgan Stanley shall pay any Retail ARS Investor that Morgan Stanley can reasonably identify who sold Eligible ARS below par between February 13, 2008, and August 13, 2008, the difference between par and the price at which the Retail ARS investor sold the Eligible ARS.

Claims for Consequential Damages

18. Notwithstanding this Consent Order, an investor may pursue any claims related to the sale of auction rate securities via any method normally available to the investor. However, if the investor is pursuing claims related exclusively to consequential damages, Morgan Stanley shall provide the investor with the option to proceed in arbitration according to the following provisions:

- a. The arbitrations will be conducted by a single public arbitrator in accordance with FINRA's special arbitration procedures for claims of consequential damages filed by Retail ARS Investors;
- b. Morgan Stanley shall pay all applicable FINRA forum and FINRA filing fees;
- c. Any Morgan Stanley Retail ARS Investors who choose to pursue such claims shall bear the burden of proving that they suffered consequential damages and that such damages were caused by the investors' inability to access funds consisting of Eligible ARS holdings purchased at Morgan Stanley; and
- d. Morgan Stanley shall be able to defend itself against such claims; provided, however, that Morgan Stanley shall not contest liability related to the sale of auction rate securities, and provided further that Morgan Stanley shall not be able to use as part of its defense a Morgan Stanley Retail ARS Investor's decision not to borrow money from Morgan Stanley.

19. Retail ARS Investors who elect to use the special arbitration process provided for herein shall not be eligible for punitive damages.

20. All customers, including but not limited to Retail ARS Investors who avail themselves of the relief provided pursuant to this Order, may pursue any remedies against Morgan Stanley available under the law. However, Retail ARS Investors that elect to utilize the special arbitration process set forth above are limited to the remedies available in that process and may not bring or pursue a claim against Morgan Stanley or in any case where Morgan Stanley is underwriter relating to Eligible ARS in another forum.

Institutional Investors

21. Morgan Stanley shall endeavor to work with issuers and other interested parties, including regulatory and governmental entities, to expeditiously provide liquidity solutions for institutional investors that purchased auction rate securities not covered by the Retail ARS Investor repurchase provisions delineated above.

22. Beginning December 11, 2008, and within 45 days of the end of each quarter thereafter, Morgan Stanley shall submit a written report to a representative specified by NASAA outlining the efforts in which Morgan Stanley has engaged and the results of those efforts with respect to Morgan Stanley institutional investors' holdings in Eligible ARS. Morgan Stanley shall, at the option of the representative specified by NASAA, confer with such representative no less frequently than quarterly to discuss Morgan Stanley's progress. Such quarterly meetings shall continue until no later than December 2009. Following every quarterly meeting, the representative shall advise Morgan Stanley of any concerns and, in response, Morgan Stanley shall detail the steps that Morgan Stanley plans to implement to address such concerns. The reporting or meeting deadlines set forth above may be amended upon Morgan Stanley's request if written permission is received from the representative specified by NASAA.

Relief for Municipal Issuers

23. Morgan Stanley shall promptly refund to municipal issuers refinancing fees the issuers paid to Morgan Stanley for the refinancing of their auction rate securities, where such refinancing occurred between February 11, 2008, and the date of this Consent Order and where Morgan Stanley acted as underwriter for the primary offering of the auction rate securities between August 1, 2007, and February 11, 2008. Nothing in this Consent Order precludes the Bureau from pursuing any other civil action that may arise with regard to auction rate securities other than the marketing and sale of auction rate securities to retail investors.

Additional Considerations

24. Nothing herein shall preclude New Jersey, its departments, agencies, boards, commissions, authorities, political subdivisions and corporations (collectively, "State Entities"), other than the Bureau and only to the extent set forth in paragraph 1 above, and the officers, agents or employees of State Entities from asserting any claims, causes of action, or applications for compensatory, nominal and/or punitive damages, administrative, civil, criminal, or injunctive relief against Morgan Stanley in connection with certain auction rate securities practices at Morgan Stanley.

25. This Consent Order shall not disqualify Morgan Stanley or any of its affiliates or current or former employees from any business that they otherwise are qualified or licensed to perform under applicable state law and this Consent Order is not intended to form the basis for any disqualification.

26. To the extent applicable, this Consent Order hereby waives any disqualification from relying upon the registration exemptions or registration safe harbor provisions that may be contained in the federal securities laws, the rules and regulations thereunder, the rules and regulations of self regulatory organizations or any states' or U.S. Territories' securities laws. In addition, this Consent Order is not intended to form the basis for any such disqualifications. In addition, this Consent Order is not intended to form the basis of a statutory disqualification under Section 3(a)(39) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

27. This Consent Order and any dispute related thereto shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the state of New Jersey without regard to any choice of law principles.

28. Evidence of a violation of this Consent Order proven in a court of competent jurisdiction shall constitute prima facie proof of a violation of the Securities Law, in any civil action or proceeding hereafter commenced by the Bureau against Morgan Stanley.

29. Should the Bureau prove in a court of competent jurisdiction that a material breach of this Consent Order by Morgan Stanley has occurred, Morgan Stanley shall pay to the Bureau the cost, if any, of such determination and of enforcing this Consent Order including without limitation legal fees, expenses, and court costs.

30. If Morgan Stanley fails to make the payment specified in paragraph 5 above, the Bureau may, at its sole discretion, pursue any legal remedies, including but not limited to initiating an action to enforce this Consent Order, revoking Morgan Stanley's registration within the state, or terminating this Consent Order.

31. If in any proceeding, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, a court of competent jurisdiction, including an administrative proceeding by a state securities administrator, finds that there was a material breach of this Consent Order, the Bureau, at its sole discretion, may terminate this Consent Order. If Morgan Stanley defaults on any other obligation under this Consent Order, the Bureau may, at its sole discretion, pursue legal remedies to enforce this Consent Order or pursue an administrative action, including but not limited to an action to revoke Morgan Stanley's registration within the Bureau. Morgan Stanley agrees that any statute of limitations or other time related defenses applicable to the subject of this Consent Order and any claims arising from or relating thereto are tolled from and after the date of this Consent Order. In the event of such termination, Morgan Stanley expressly agrees and acknowledges that this Consent Order shall in no way bar or otherwise preclude the Bureau from commencing, conducting or prosecuting any investigation, action, or proceeding, however denominated, related to this Consent Order, against Morgan Stanley, or from using in any way any statements, documents or other materials produced or provided by Morgan Stanley prior to or after the date of this Consent Order, including, without limitation, such statements, documents or other materials, if any, provided for purposes of settlement negotiations, except as may otherwise be provided in a written agreement with the Bureau.

32. Morgan Stanley shall cooperate fully and promptly with the Bureau and shall use its best efforts to ensure that all the current and former officers, directors, trustees, agents, members, partners, and employees of Morgan Stanley (and of any of Morgan Stanley's parent companies, subsidiaries, or affiliates) cooperate fully and promptly with the Bureau in any pending or subsequently initiated investigation, litigation, or other proceeding relating to auction rate securities and/or the subject matter of this Consent Order. Such cooperation shall include, without limitation, and on a best efforts basis:

- a. production, voluntarily and without service of subpoena, upon the request of the Bureau, of all documents or other tangible evidence requested by the Bureau and any compilations or summaries of information or data that the Bureau requests that Morgan Stanley (or the Morgan Stanley's parent companies, subsidiaries, or affiliates) prepare, except to the extent such production would require the disclosure of information protected by the attorney-client and/or work product privileges;
- b. without the necessity of a subpoena, having the current (and making all reasonable efforts to cause the former) officers, directors, trustees, agents, members, partners, and employees of Morgan Stanley (and of any of the Morgan Stanley's parent companies, subsidiaries, or affiliates) attend any Proceedings (as hereinafter defined) in New Jersey or elsewhere at which the presence of any such persons is requested by the Bureau and having such current (and making all reasonable efforts to cause the former) officers, directors, trustees, agents, members, partners, and employees answer any and all inquiries that may be put by the Bureau to any of them at any proceedings or otherwise, except to the extent such production would require the disclosure of information protected by the attorney-client and/or work product privileges. "Proceedings" include, but are not limited to, any meetings, interviews, depositions, hearings, trials, grand jury proceedings, or other proceedings;
- c. fully, fairly, and truthfully disclosing all information and producing all records and other evidence in its possession, custody, or control (or the possession, custody, or control of the Morgan Stanley parent companies, subsidiaries, or affiliates) relevant to all inquiries made by the Bureau concerning the subject matter of this Consent Order, except to the extent such inquiries call for the disclosure of information protected by the attorney-client and/or work product privileges; and

d. making outside counsel reasonably available to provide comprehensive presentations concerning any internal investigation relating to all matters in this Consent Order and to answer questions, except to the extent such presentations or questions call for the disclosure of information protected by the attorney-client and/or work product privileges.

33. In the event Morgan Stanley fails to comply with paragraph 32 above, the Bureau shall be entitled to specific performance, in addition to any other available remedies.

Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated hereby consents to the form and entry of this Consent Order without admitting or denying the findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth herein.
