

PARENTS

- Supervise Your Child's Online Activity by Regularly Checking Settings, Profiles and Posts
- Review Games, Apps and Social Media Sites Before Your Child Uses Them
- Beware of Apps and Sites Offering Encryption, Video Chats, File Uploads, and Anonymity
- Watch Your Child for Potential Signs of Abuse:
 - Changes in Use of Electronic Devices
 - Attempts to Conceal Online Activity
 - Withdrawal, Anger, Anxiety, Depression

CHILDREN

- Don't Trust People You Don't Know
- Beware of Apps Where People Conceal Their Identity
- Do Not Reveal Personal Information About Yourself
- Be Careful of Sharing Photos and Videos— Predators Can Identify and Locate You by Your School, Your Activities, or Other Background Information
- Never Take or Share Inappropriate Photos or Videos

New Jersey Office of the Attorney General

Report suspected predatory behavior by calling 911 or filing a report with the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children (NCMEC) at 1-800-843-5678 | report.cybertip.org