

Attorney General Matthew J. Platkin and the Advocacy Institute are pleased to present:

Racial Justice— A Legacy of Advocacy and Resistance

A Conversation with Minnijean Brown Trickey

NOVEMBER 1, 2023

1:00 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.

Richard J. Hughes Justice Complex

Advocacy Institute Conference Center
Fourth Floor, West Wing
25 Market Street, Trenton, NJ

Attorney General Platkin will hold a conversation with Minnijean Brown Trickey, one of nine African American students who desegregated Little Rock Central High School in 1957. She will share her compelling story as a member of the “Little Rock Nine.” She will also discuss her career as an educator and her lifetime of advocacy for racial justice, cross-cultural communication; gender and social justice, peacemaking; environmental justice and developing youth leadership.

*This program is open to all employees in the Department of Law and Public Safety.
Attorneys who attend the program will receive NJ and PA CLE ethics credits.*
