Resource Guide

Please be advised that the resource information contained herein is intended as an initial point of reference to connect a person suffering from Substance Use Disorder and/or his/her family member to a contact within a particular county. The contact information listed was provided by each county's OHH contact lead. The Office of the Attorney General allows each OHH program to identify and choose its own resources and program partners/collaborators. Each OHH program is responsible for vetting those resources and program partners/collaborators.

If you believe any of the information contained in this document needs to be changed for any reason, please reach out to the following:

Danielle.LoRusso@law.njoag.gov or Felix.Pacheco@njoag.gov.

NJ CARES will periodically update this resource guide and all information is subject to change.
