

New Jersey Open Dialogue with Experts

Opioid Education Podcast Series

Presented by: Rowan-Virtua University School of Osteopathic Medicine New Jersey Office of the Attorney General

Join us for a recorded video podcast interview series consisting of 18 podcasts that feature experts in their respective fields.

This series will provide standardized, comprehensive, easily accessible, evidence-based education on the best practices and current laws regarding opioids for professionals throughout the state.

CME and CEU Credits Available.

SCAN CODE
TO REGISTER

Sign Up Today!

Topics include:

- Mobile units for increased access to treatment
- Residential treatment programs
- Roles of pharmacists in the community
- Alternatives to opioids
- Polysubstance use in patients
- Pregnant women and MOUDs

NJCARES.gov
New Jersey Coordinator for Addiction Responses and Enforcement Strategies

ROWAN-VIRTUA
School of
Osteopathic Medicine